TWELVE NAVY PLANES MAKE RECORD MASS HOP

Navy Bombers Make Record Naval Flight

Non-Stop Mass Flight To Honolulu Made By Twelve Planes

THRILLING BATTLE WITH FOG CLOUDS

Navy Planes Left San Diego, California On Thursday Morning

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

HONOLULU, T. H., Jan. 29.—Coming safely through a dramatic two-hour battle with an impenetrable fog over the Pacific, twelve navy bombers glided to the surface of Pearl Harbor today, completing the most spectacular nonstop mass flight in the history of the American navy.

The planes circled over the harbor in "N" formation, and the first one dropped to the water at 3 a. m. (Honolulu time), the other following in rapid succession.

The squadron left San Diego yesterday morning.

Thrilling Battle

Lieut. Comdr. William M. McDade, commander of the flight revealed a thrilling story of the fight with the fog between three and four hundred miles out of Honolulu.

"We struck a solid front of thick, impenetrable fog," he said. "We tried to pull away from it. We turned south repeatedly, looking for a hole. We kept fighting that wall of fog, turning the planes along its front and then heading into it again.

"We tried to go under and over it. We dropped to 1,000 feet, then finally climbed to 14,000 and started over the top of the fog bank."

Princeton Students Aid Flood Sufferers

(International News Service)

PRINCETON, N. J., Jan. 29.—Members of the Key and Seal Eating club at Princeton university have voted to go without meat at three meals weekly and to contribute the savings to the American Red Cross for flood relief, James Studdford, undergraduate president, announced today.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

With the Pymatuning Dam apparently preventing a flood here for the third time within the period of a year, New Castle residents have something that is worth broadcasting. While other communities were being inundated, this city was saved from the huge damage of a flood. Without the Pymatuning Dam effects here, the flood conditions of 1913 would undoubtedly have been re-experienced in this city.

President's Ball Will Draw Throng Tonight

New Castle will go dancing tonight. Along with some 6,000 other communities in the United States this city will participate in the nation-wide President's Ball which is held annually for the purpose of raising funds to battle infantile paralysis and to honor the birthday of President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Under the general chairmanship of Attorney Clarence A. Patterson, a committee has been working for the past two weeks arranging for the ball which will be held tonight in the Cathedral. Tickets have been placed on sale at various stores, by individuals and tickets will be on sale tonight at the doors of the Cathedral.

Because the mid-year commencement of the New Castle Senior high school is being held tonight in the Cathedral the President's Ball will not start until the close of the commencement. This is expected to be about 9:15 or 9:30. From then on until one-thirty the dancers will make merry and in addition add to the fund to battle the insidious infantile paralysis.

Only thirty per cent of the proceeds of the ball tonight leave New Castle. Seventy per cent will be divided equally between the Jameson Memorial and New Castle hospitals for use in the treatment of infantile paralysis.

A huge birthday cake will be sold to the highest bidder, door prizes will be given away and it is expected that the affair will be a social and a financial success.

Huge Army Working To Reinforce Levees

(International News Service)

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Jan. 29.—Mobilization of man power along the Mississippi river, with Memphis the focal point, continued today under federal supervision as a pick and shovel army 100,000 strong accepted the challenge of the river and confidently prepared to beat it back all along the 1,200-mile main levee front from Cairo to New Orleans.

Although government meterologists brought cheering news to the lower valley with their forecasts of crests under those predicted by army engineers, there was no let-up in precautionary measures for evacuation of a million inhabitants of the lowlands.

Predicts 48 Foot Crest

Government Meterologist F. W. Brist predicted a crest here of 48 feet within 10 days. But Lieut. Col. Eugene Reybold, district engineer,

Supervisors In Session Here

Annual Convention Of Auditors And Supervisors At Court House

D. B. REYNOLDS IS PRESIDING OFFICER

With most of the township supervisors and auditors present, the 23rd annual convention of the Lawrence County Supervisors and Auditors association convened today at ten o'clock in court room number one of the Lawrence county court house. President D. B. Reynolds was in charge with Secretary John W. Cox with him.

President Reynolds opened the convention with a short address following which Secretary Cox called the roll. Judge James A. Chambers, president judge of the Lawrence county courts then welcomed the supervisors and auditors and expressed the hope that in the association and exchange of ideas they would all profit. His address was replied to by Herbert A. Leslie of Little Beaver township. The minutes of the 1936 convention were read by Secretary Cox.

John B. Shaw Speaks

John B. Shaw, superintendent of highways for Lawrence county, and himself a former president of the association was called upon. He discussed the condition of the local highways and also the workings of the Furman Act which provides a mileage allowance for supervisors in working township roads. Ernest Trimble, state highway engineer was scheduled to speak but was unable to be present. He will likely speak this afternoon.

William A. McMahon and Ben Davis, delegates to the 1936 convention in Uniontown then gave a resume of what had been accomplished at that convention. Following the appointment of committees, the convention adjourned for lunch.

BRANCH MANAGER
(International News Service)

CHESTER, Pa., Jan. 29.—Three bandits today held up Howard R. Forrest, 28, manager of a "one-man" branch of the First National Bank of Chester, as he was opening the branch office. They fled with $340 in cash.

The invaders were foiled from entering the vault by a time-lock. They escaped in a sedan heading in the direction of Philadelphia.

Bar Association Goes On Record Against 'Ripper'

Association Unanimous Against Eroe's Bill To Eliminate One County Judge

NAME COMMITTEE TO FIGHT 'RIPPER'

Show Saving To County By Two Judge System At Meeting Thursday

By unanimous vote the Lawrence County Bar Association on Thursday afternoon went on record as vigorously opposing the Eroe ripper bill which would deprive Lawrence county of one of its two judges. The meeting of the bar association in court room number one saw one of the largest attendances in years, and despite the number of addresses, not a voice was raised in defense of the bill nor in justification of the idea.

A number of speakers presented their ideas of the two judge system and what it has meant to Lawrence county. Among them were Attorney Ray Humphrey, Ex-Judge J. Norman Martin, Attorney Wilbur J. Baer, Attorney Robert L. Wallace, Attorney Wylie S. McCaslin and Attorney Alva H. Shumaker. The first

Louisville Dead May Reach 400

Many Of Flood Victims Are Buried Without Being Identified

FLOOD WATERS ARE SLOWLY RECEDING

(International News Service)

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 29.—Cold and snow forecast for flood-stricken Louisville today added to the burden of physicians and nurses struggling to prevent further spread of an epidemic of influenza and pneumonia.

Added to the fear of pestilence and disease was the menace of the collapse of buildings in the downtown sector, their foundations weakened by the flood waters.

As the waters slowly receded, the death toll mounted to 200, according to Mayor Neville Miller, although unofficial sources said the victims of the Ohio numbered at least 400.

Buried Unidentified

Trenches dug in the city's cemeteries received the unidentified dead in wholesale burials, hasty affected to minimize the danger of pestilence.

Red Cross Takes Steps To Provide Refugees' Needs

MOBILIZE SUPPLIES IN FLOOD ZONES

Warehouses Being Set Up At Strategic Points In Stricken District

By L. W. MEREDITH
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Facing the task of providing for thousands of the more than 800,000 flood refugees now under its care for at least two weeks the Red Cross today ordered field directors to mobilize supplies to withstand a siege of hunger, cold and possible disease.

National Chairman Cary T. Grayson issued carte blanche orders to the directors to buy supplies needed and concentrate them at strategic points.

Set Up Warehouses

Warehouses were being set up at Cincinnati, Louisville, Memphis, Evansville, Ind., Columbus, O., Indianapolis and St. Louis for storage of non-perishable food, cots, blankets, mattresses and clothing.

Just as men, boats, motor trucks and rescue equipment were being sent to Cairo, Ill., and Memphis, Tenn., to meet the crest of the flood as it neared the Missisipspi, the Red Cross stocked its supply depots to continue care of the destitute in the Ohio river valley as the waters began to recede.

Hundreds of thousands of dollars were wired to banks at the mobilization points and deposited to the credit of the field directors, to avoid delays and red tape in clearing purchases through Washington.

Fire In Hold Of Big Liner Is Controlled

Miami-New York Liner Shawnee's Crew Does Excellent Work In Quelling Blaze

HEADED TOWARD NEW YORK CITY

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Jan. 29—Capt. E. A. Shelton, master of the luxury liner Shawnee, today assured relatives of passengers aboard the vessel—in a radiogram to International News Service—that all aboard are safe and in no danger.

Skipper Shelton radioed:

"Fire under control. No further danger.

"Passengers all well.

(Signed) Master, S. S. Shawnee."

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—With the lives of her 190 passengers and 174 crew members apparently safe, the luxurious Clyde-Mallory liner Shawnee was ploughing northward through heavy seas off the Virginia Capes today, a fire in her No. 2 hold under control.

A few hours after the vessel, en route from Miami to New York, flashed an S. O. S., her master, Capt. E. A. Chelton sent this reassuring message to the line's New York office:

"Fire now under control. Heavy weather prevailing. Proceeding to New York."

Rush To Aid

When the first call for help crackled over the air, all vessels and coast guard cutters in the vicinity began a mad race for the stricken liner. The S. S. Corinthia was reported nearest, although her exact position was not learned.

The Shawnee, fastest vessel in the coastal service, was 50 miles off Cape Henry when Chelton ordered the S. O. S.

Shelton at first indicated he would head for shore, but later wirelessed

Workers Strengthen Cairo Protective Wall

WORKMEN ADD TO LEVEE PROTECTING CAIRO FROM RAVAGES OF MISSISSIPPI

Workmen are shown busy strengthening the flood wall at Cairo, Ill., as the Ohio river flood waters rush into the Mississippi at that point. Army plans for evacuation of the whole Mississippi valley from Cairo to Louisiana were halted until danger of broken levees becomes an actuality. Later estimates indicated a lower flood height than had been expected. —Central Press

Big Community Party Will Aid Flood Victims

Mayor Charles E. McGrath Heads Committee Planning Event For Next Week

ENTERTAINMENT TO INTEREST ALL

Relief Fund Today Totals Over $3,500 With Several Big Contributions

Faced with the realization that more punch was needed in the campaign to raise funds for the flood sufferers of the Ohio and Mississippi valleys, Mayor Charles E. McGrath called a meeting of representatives of the city's fraternal orders and service clubs in the city council chambers last evening, and out of the meeting grew a plan to stage another big community party, which will take place in the Cathedral, Friday evening, February 5.

It will be a party which will interest the taste of everyone as far as entertainment is concerned, and tickets for the event will be in the hands of the committee by this evening.

It is the aim of the committee to clear up the community's obligation to suffering humanity, and

Starting Hour To Be 7:30; Diplomas Will Be Presented To 215

President Robert F. Galbreath of Westminster college will speak at the 68th commencement exercises of Senior high school in the Cathedral auditorium tonight at 7:30 o'clock tonight. A class of 215 will be graduated.

Presentation of awards to outstanding seniors, special music and a brief message by Superintendent of Schools C. C. Green will mark the evening's program. President Daniel B. Woolcock of the board of education will present diplomas.

The Senior High School orchestra is to play during the exercises.

Dr. S. E. Irvine of the First U. P. church will give the invocation and benediction.

The 7:30 starting hour will be observed in order to permit an early close in the service on account of the President's birthday ball.

Cairo Levee Workers Await Flood Crest

By A. L. SLOAN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

CAIRO, Jan. 29—Cairo's army of 4000 exhausted levee workers sat back on its heels today and dared the rapacious Ohio to do its worst.

The work of building up the 60 foot dike protecting the city, to a height of 63 feet in preparation for the 63-foot flood crest expected tomorrow or Sunday, has been completed after a week of unceasing toil.

Now there is nothing more to do but wait and see whether Cairo belongs to its citizens or to the river.

The river is slowly inching its way upwards as the crest creeps southward from the upper Ohio valley. Today the water had passed the 58.1 foot mark.

The danger of an overflow of the waters diverted into the huge Bird's Point-New Madrid floodway—a measure which saved Cairo from inundation early in the week—passed today with the dynamiting of earthen levees at the lower end of the great lake, allowing the impounded waters to flow back into the Mississippi's main channel.

Water Falling In 'Ghost' Cities

Ohio Receding In Hard Hit Cities In Indiana Is Day's Report

EVANSVILLE FLOOD STAGE STILL HIGH

By EDWARD J. CADOU
International News Service Sports Writer

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 29.—Flood-stricken Indiana experienced some relief today when the crest of the devastating Ohio river was reached at all points except the Evansville and "pocket" areas.

After a week of terrorizing inundation during which a score or more perished, hundreds became ill from exposure and property damage mounted to many millions of dollars, practically all Hoosier rivers except the Ohio were receding.

The Ohio, which has scourged a hundred Indiana cities and towns, relented today except in the extreme southwest part of the state. That was a grave exception, however, because it included Evansville, a city of more than 100,000 people, and a fertile agricultural area at the junction of the Ohio and Wabash rivers in Posey county.

Association Election Marks Hotel Dinner; Pearson Is Speaker

Members of the Lawrence County Bankers' association re-elected John J. Maher, cashier of the Citizen's National bank, as president of their organization for 1937 when they convened in The Castleton last night for the association's annual dinner meeting.

Other 1936 officers were also re-elected for another term. They were:

Edgar L. Thompson, First National Bank of Lawrence County, vice president; A. W. Tindal, Lawrence Savings and Trust Company, secretary; John D. Kennedy, People's Bank, of New Castle, treasurer and T. L. Ashcom, New Wilmington, John C. Moore, this city and C. W. Jackson, Ellwood City, members of the council of administration.

Governor Signs Relief Measure

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Jan. 29.—Gov. George H. Earle today signed the first bill enacted by the 132nd session of the legislature—the $4,800,000 emergency unemployment relief appropriation for February and part of March.

Passed finally this week, the measure was expected to result in transfer of $4,800,000 from the motor license fund. With $500,000 remaining in the relief till, this would give the state emergency relief board $5,300,000 for the next four to six weeks.

Huge Force At Work To Avert Big Flood Loss

Feverish Preparations To Hold Water In Bounds In Lower Mississippi

HUNDRED THOUSAND WORKING ON LEVEE

Crest Of Flood Is Now Nearing Cairo; Soon Will Be In Mississippi River

(International News Service)

The greatest peace time mobilization in the history of this nation battled today to save the lower Mississippi valley from the tidal wave sweeping down from the Ohio valley.

Memphis was the general headquarters of the spectacular campaign, the 1200 mile levee system stretching from Cairo to New Orleans the battle front.

The combat forces—the army engineers—deployed a pick and shovel army of 100,000 along the levee system, accepting the challenge of the river and confidently prepared to keep it within its man-made banks.

Despite the confidence of the engineers and the government meterologists who predicted flood crests under those forecast by the engineers, there was no letup in precautionary measures for evacuation

Three Are Hurt In Auto Accident

Accident Occurs Near Intersection Of Butler Road And Perry Highway

Several persons were injured Thursday afternoon when an auto tractor and trailer struck an automobile one mile west of the junction of Routes 19 and 422, on Route 422, the Butler road.

The injured:

Mr. and Mrs. A. Dewey Shifflet, 617 Oak street, city.

Miss Ruth Kraigmont, 617 Oak street, city.

The full extent of Mr. Shifflet's injuries are not yet known. Mrs. Shifflet and Miss Kraigmont sustained lacerations and body bruises.

All were treated at the Jameson Memorial hospital then removed to the Shifflet home.

According to highway patrol investigators the tractor and trailer was operated by Howard Lavengood, toward New Castle.

It left the road, hit the berm, and in trying to get the tractor and trailer back on the road the steering gear became disarranged, Lavengood reported.

The tractor and trailer plunged across the highway and struck a sedan operated east by Mr. Shifflet, according to the patrolman.

RUSSIANS ASK FOR DEATH

Two On Trial Admit Guilt

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

MOSCOW, Jan. 29.—Delivering their own "funeral orations," Karl Radek and Gregory Piatakov, chief of the 17 defendants in the anti-Stalin plot trial, today abjectly asked for "nothing more than death!"

Both repeated their detailed admissions of guilt in a vast conspiracy to involve the Soviet Union in war with other countries, and to help Japan in the event of a Japanese war with the United States, but Radek denied that Leon Trotsky was his inspiration.

"I was a mature and politically experienced man," said the famous editorial commentator. "I knew what I wanted, and did not need Trotsky's inspiration.

"My only motive in joining the Trotskyite group was that its view coincided with mine, and there was no other way of fighting the Soviet government."

Likely To Be Executed

Their grim requests for death no doubt will be granted within six days. Today and tomorrow are being given over to the seventeen's final statements. Sentence of death is expected to be passed Sunday, and the firing squad's must do their macabre work within 72 hours.

Radek nevertheless drew near to the grave with a tone of pride.

"Citizen judges," he cried dramatically, "I vehemently protest being put on trial with ordinary bandits and wreckers. My confession of treason is sufficient condemnation, so it is not necessary to discredit me in addition."

This drew the anger of Presiding Judge V. M. Ulrich. Just as Radek was saying he considered himself only a political criminal, Ulrich called the ex-editor to order with a bell.

"I object to your calling me 'comrade,'" said the judge.

Radek apologized with stinging sarcasm.

women who stayed to cook for them, are the only inhabitants of Cairo, now cut off from the outside world by rail and with the only means of egress a single highway to the north. More than 8,000 of Cairo's residents have been evacuated.

Above and below Cairo dozens of towns and settlements have been swept by the flood waters.

U. S. coast guardsmen are finishing up the evacuation of Mound City and Mounds, Ill., a half dozen miles away.

Orders have been issued that the fifty men remaining at Mount City after evacuation of the 2,000 or more residents, must leave the scene at once. Many were holding on with bulldog tenacity against leaving their domiciles and possessions.

The coast guard cutters with their purring motors were gliding over the waters in the heart of the town like gondolas in Venice, searching for hideaways.

They found several women with children still in attics, the only parts of homes which were not submerged in the 18 feet of water.

of the unidentified bodies to provide clues for possible later identification.

An area about a four-story department building in the heart of the business district was roped off by police today as the structure settled four inches.

Fissures in sidewalks and streets and in the walls of buildings brought a new alarm to the city, a fear that structures may collapse, perhaps long after Louisville emerges from its horrible nightmare.

The task of accurately determining the death toll may never be completed. Authorities have no means of checking on the number of persons dwelling in the lowland sections of the city who failed to flee to the heights before the onrush of the maddened river, and many bodies may have been carried away by the raging waters.

Officials said today the supply of food and other supplies for the homeless refugees encamped on the highlands is adequate.

Although the cold weather added to the suffering of the refugees and the burden of health authorities, it was expected to add impetus to the recession of the flood waters.

This afternoon the convention will nominate and elect officers. Thomas W. Peeler of the State Highway department will speak on the construction and stabilization of township roads, and State Senator William J. Kelso, Jr., will speak on "Has the Diversion of the Motor Funds Been Detrimental to Lawrence County Roads" and Assemblyman Carmi G. Preston will speak on an unannounced subject."

Dr. Frederick A. Taylor and Frank E. Smith will speak on "Are the Restrictions of the Furman Act Governing the Expenditure of the Township Tax Money, on Work Projects, detrimental to the Economic Expenditure of the said Money?" An open discussion will follow.

Reports of committees will follow and the convention will adjourn.

Big Contributions

In the meantime, Lawrence county citizens stepped up their generosity, yesterday's contributions being the largest yet reported. The figures were aided by several large contributions, that of Miss Mae Emma Hoyt for $500 topping the list. Other large contributions included $100 from Frank S. Hoyt, and $100 from the New Castle Cement Workers union, bringing the figure today over the $3,500 mark.

Some real expressions of generosity have been noted in the giving of local people. The hearts of children in particular have been touched by the need of the sufferers. Yesterday, Jane and Bill Troop, brought a dollar each to the Red Cross office, while from West Pittsburgh came a similar bequest from Jackie and Mary Jane Gibbons, aged eight and ten. The Townsmen had $20 in their treasury, and they almost emptied it, when they contributed $15 of their surplus. And so the story goes. Each day brings to light expressions of generosity which are touching.

But to get back to the Mayor's party, representatives of some twenty-five organizations were represented at the meeting last evening, and committees were appointed to take care of the arrangements for this big entertainment and party. Another meeting will take place at the Cathedral Monday evening, when arrangements will be checked on, and further plans made.

The committees appointed by the mayor are as follows:

Tickets—L. J. Lewis, Junior Chamber of Commerce; and Miss Mary Bigley, Quota club; Joseph R. McFate, Townsmen; G. G. Emerick, Pennsylvania R. R.; Vincent Travers, B. and O. R. R.

Entertainment—Jesse N. Kerr and Orville Potter, Kiwanis club.

Dance—Welty O. Rugh, New Castle Consistory, A. A. S. R., chairman Miss Mildred Owens, Junior B. P. W.; Miss Gladys Biddle, Junior Federation of Women's clubs; Ray S. Tannehill, New Castle Rotary club; Walter C. DeArment, and Ed. Connelly, Elks club.

Cards—Mrs. L. B. Round, chairman, Chapter 105, O. E. S.

Cashier—David Victor, Cosmo club.

Publicity—Charles E. Allen and David Victor.

Refreshments — Carm Sacco, Wolves club; Frank DeCarbo, New Castle Works, Cisco; Howard Erwin, Mrs. Carl Cialella.

Candy—Federation of Women's clubs, Mrs. H. R. McCulloch, chairman.

Fortune Telling—Miss Martha Bigley, Quota club; Harry Clark, South Side Board of Trade; Bill Ayers.

Represented at the meeting last evening were: Elks club, Earl Dukes, Walter C. DeArment, Ed. Connelly; American Legion, Dave Tobin; Junior Chamber of Commerce, L. J. Lewis; Townsmen, Joseph R. McFate; Cathedral Association and Consistory, Joe Williams, Russell C. Melvin, Welty O. Rugh.

City Administration—Mayor Chas. E. McGrath, City Clerk O. Ed. Brown; Business and Professional Women, Mrs. R. L. Boyd; Junior B. P. W., Miss Mildred Owens; Cosmo club, David Victor; Wolves club, Carm Sacco; Knights of Columbus, Tom Flanagan; Rotary club, Ray S. Tannehill; South Side Board of Trade, Harry Clark; Lions club, Numa F. Vidal; Kiwanis club, Jesse N. Kerr, Orville Potter; Veterans of Foreign Wars, James G. did not alter his prediction of a crest of 55 feet, and pushed work on reinforcement of the levees. The river passed the 44.6 foot mark last night, within one foot of the all time record.

District engineers tersely reported critical spots in the levee system "O. K." today. But under their direction a great army of men, including 935 Arkansas convicts, toiled like beavers strengthening the dikes.

Work On Main Levee

From Charleston, Mo., to the mouth of the Arkansas river, 25,000 men labored on the main levee, with engineers reporting "satisfactory progress."

Along Crowley's Ridge, a strip of high ground on the Arkansas side of the river, the army of workmen and thousands of refugees were housed in tent cities. Regular army troops and state militiamen cleared highways of casual traffic to give refugees and rumbling supply trucks the right-of-way.

Pallbearers were Howard Bridenbaugh, C. S. Bridenbaugh, Dr. Black, David Means, Frank McClure and W. E. Kreiter. Interment was made in Neshannock cemetery, New Wilmington.

Clare C. McKibben

Word has been received here of the death of Clare C. McKibben, 32, 416 Kenelworth road, Warren, Ohio, formerly of New Castle. Mr. McKibben died at 5:30 a. m. today in the Warren City hospital after a siege of pneumonia.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert McKibben, of Maryland avenue. His wife is remembered as Miss Evelyn B. Davies, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Davies of East Washington street. In addition to his widow and parents he is survived by a daughter Eleanor Mae, a sister, Mrs. Eleanor Griffith of Youngstown, O., and two brothers, Wilbur and Robert McKibben, New Castle.

The body has been brought to the Jos. B. Leyde mortuary, Highland at Winter, this city, and will be removed this evening to the home of the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert McKibben, 1013 Maryland avenue.

Funeral arrangements and further announcement will be published later.

Ransom McCreary

Ransom McCreary, aged 90 years, a lifetime resident of Hillsville and proprietor of a harness shop for more than a half century, died at his home today at 1:15 a. m.

Mr. McCreary was born in Hillsville on April 1, 1846. His father was a harness maker and taught his son the trade when very young. For more than 50 years he conducted his own shop. He was a member of the Hillsville M. E. church.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Maude McBride; a son, Hugh McCreary, of Hillsville; five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted at the residence on Monday afternoon at two o'clock and burial will be made in the Baptist cemetery at Hillsville. At present the body is at the Cunningham funeral home in Lowellville, O., but it will be removed to the residence Saturday morning.

William H. Crum

William H. Crum, aged 73 years, passed away at 9:45 p. m. Thursday at the home of Paul Spencer, 112 Holton street, where he resided. Death was due to a stroke suffered a short time before.

Mr. Crum was born on October 24, 1863, and passed all of his lifetime in this district, and was a member of the Harbor M. E. church. He had never married and was the last member of his family.

Funeral services will be conducted at the Darrell Burke funeral home Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and interment will be made in Greenwood cemetery.

Mrs. Florence Everly Funeral

Funeral services for Mrs. Florence Everly, aged 73 years, who died on Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert B. Cranston, 408 Neshannock avenue, were conducted at three o'clock Thursday afternoon in the Jos. B. Leyde mortuary.

Dr. J. J. McIlvaine, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, was in charge and friends served as the pallbearers. Interment was made in Graceland cemetery.

Mrs. Everly died after a long illness. She was born in Knoxville, Ill., on March 11, 1863, daughter of Clinton R. and Jane Hogg Randall. Her daughter, Mrs. Cranston, is her only close survivor.

Mrs. Forquer Funeral Time

Funeral services for the late Mrs Jennie Forquer, who died yesterday in the Almira Home, will be conducted on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock in the Jos. B. Leyde mortuary, Highland at Winter, and the body will then be taken to Foxburg, Pa., for burial.

Mrs. Forquer was born on February 7, 1861, in Butler county, daughter of James and Sarah Sankey Mortland. She had been a resident of New Castle for many years and had a great many friends, who received the news of her demise with sorrow.

Especially will she be missed by the Lawrence county W. C. T. U., an organization which she served faithfully for many years as evangelistic department director. In this capacity she conducted religious services and distributed gospel leaflets every week among the prisoners of the Lawrence county jail for a quarter century.

She leaves a sister, Mrs. Kittie Pattison, of Whittier, Calif., and three nieces, Mrs. Twlya Lawrence and Mrs. Gertrude Patterson, of Pittsburgh, and Mrs. Garnet Gallagher of Whittier, Calif.

The nieces from Pittsburgh will be at the mortuary tonight from seven to nine o'clock to meet friends when they call.

George Bendel Funeral Time.

Funeral services for George H. Bendel, aged 47 years, of 233 North Mill street, will be conducted at the George Morrow funeral home, this city, on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Mr. Bendel is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Mary Hampu and Mrs. Daisy Kisor, of Canton, O., five nieces and three nephews. His sisters arrived in New Castle this morning.

Andrew Maciejewski.

Funeral mass for Andrew Maciejewski, aged 64 years, of 1609 Hanna street, who died in the Jameson Memorial hospital this morning at 9:45 o'clock, will be celebrated Monday morning at 9 o'clock in St. Philip and James church with Rev. V. V. Stancelewski officiating. Interment will be made in the church cemetery.

Mr. Maciejewski was born in Poland, October 17, 1873, son of Mr. and Mrs. Barthlomiej Maciejewski. He had lived in New Castle for the past 27 years.

His wife, Mary Aarko Maciejewski, two sons, John and Stanley, one daughter, Mrs. Theresa Puzio, a brother, John Maciejewski, of Pittsburgh and a sister, Mary, in Poland, survive. He also leaves seven grandchildren.

Mrs. Harriet Peak Funeral.

Funeral services for Mrs. Harriet Peak were conducted at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the residence on the West Pittsburg road. The body was then taken to Bethel church near Mercer where further services followed. Rev. D. N. Scott, pastor of the Valley Way Mission, was in charge.

Rev. Scott and Mrs. Dora Tanner sang two beautiful selections during the services. "Going Down the Valley" and "What a Friend We Have In Jesus."

Friends served as pallbearers and interment was made in Bethel cemetery.

the berserk Ohio, but the devastating stream continued to rise at Evansville and at points west of there.

Rainfall, predicted by the Indianapolis weather bureau, materialized yesterday and last night, but it was not heavy enough to result in much damage. Nevertheless, the comparatively few unevacuated residents of the river cities and the guardsmen and relief workers today continued to scan the skies anxiously.

The peak of the flood was expected at Evansville and Mt. Vernon today.

Drastic sanitary regulations, enforced rigidly by the state board of health, so far have prevented alarming epidemics of contagious diseases in the flooded area and among the thousands of flood refugees huddled in relief concentration camps, far from the ugly yellow waters of the Ohio. Nevertheless, there have been many cases of scarlet fever, smallpox, pneumonia and whooping cough.

gees fed, warm and housed is the immediate job of the field directors. Tons of food, thousands of cots and blankets, and carloads of fuel are being purchased in the markets of Chicago, Columbus, Indianapolis, St. Louis and Memphis, and shipped to the warehouses, as well as to the concentration centers.

In addition, tons of donated food and clothing are being distributed as fast as they can be transported to the valley of desolation.

Savings Showed

In the past several days statements have been made tending to show a savings in jury fees due to the two judge system. The attorneys had the facts before them and the savings is even more than was thought. In 1926, when Lawrence county had only one judge; the jury costs in Lawrence county were $26,404.49. In 1936 with two judges, the jury costs were $11,424.59. This includes jury fees, meals and lodging for jurors, as do the 1936 costs.

The savings represented, means a savings to all of the taxpayers. Other savings such as divorce proceedings (approximately $4,500) in 1936, and estate audits (approximately $4,000) in 1936, were savings directly to litigants. Over and above the actual financial savings, it was pointed out, is the fact that with two judges the dockets are kept up to date, cases are tried within a reasonable time and judgment given to the litigants.

All of the addresses of the attorneys were to the point. Without any equivocation they pointed out the injustice of the bill, and after considerable discussion it was moved and passed that the president, Attorney J. Clyde Gilfillan, should appoint a committee to take steps to combat the bill.

Names Committee

The committee announced by President Gilfillan today consists of the following attorneys: Ex-Judge R. Lawrence Hildebrand, Ex-Judge J. Norman Martin, Attorney William K. Hugus, Attorney Wylie S. McCaslin, Attorney Robert L. Wallace and Attorney Marshall Matheny. Here again the division between Democrats and Republicans is even.

This committee will meet and decide upon a course of procedure. It is likely that this will include a conference with State Senator William J. Eroe, Jr., the sponsor of the judicial ripper, and Assemblymen Carmi G. Preston and James B. Kelso, Jr., the two men representing Lawrence county in the general assembly. Further than this, it is likely that a trip to Harrisburg will be made to place before the committee on judiciary general of the state senate, the facts in the case.

"Why not? Artists have been known to do such things."

"Yes, but maids haven't."

the New York offices he was proceeding directly here, expecting to arrive about midnight tonight.

Take Precautions

Taking every precaution, however, to safeguard lives of his passengers and crew Capt. Chelton radioed the coast guard to keep a sharp watch along the vessel's course in event the fire should get beyond control.

There was no panic among the passengers, according to the best information available here. An alarm rang immediately after the fire was discovered and the passengers were brought out on deck to be prepared for any emergency. Ship's officers advised them to be calm and reassured them there was no danger.

Auditors' Figures Appear Incorrectly

An error in The News of Thursday night announced incorrect figures in one item of the auditors' account of the Shenango township road supervisors which appeared on the classified page over the signatures of the auditors, James G. Houk, Earl E. Ramsey and Francis H. Reno. The error on the part of The News was purely unintentional.

Under the "sinking fund account" division, the correct statement, as submitted by the auditors, was:

Balance on hand last audit, $8.62.

Transferred from general fund, $1,217.16.

Total, $1,225.78.

The "total" as published was $12,257.78. That was incorrect.

FIELD CLUB MEMBERS HAVE EVENING PARTY

The New Castle Field Club was the mecca Thursday evening for a large number of its membership, who gathered to share their usual bi-weekly evening bridge party. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Headland filled the role of hosts.

Contests in bridge held sway throughout the early hours, prizes being carried off by Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Long, Mrs. S. E. Patterson and R. M. Garland for winning honors. The usual informal routine followed, and the serving of lunch concluded the program.

Announcement was made to the effect that the next evening bridge will take place on Tuesday, February 9, instead of the regular night, Thursday. The change is made necessary because of plans being rounded out for a special "Stunt Night" program on Thursday, February 11. Further particulars will be announced later.

MUSIC IS THEME FOR SUB-JUNIORS

Two informative and interesting discourses on music appreciation and the lives of musicians were given at Thursday evening's meeting of Sub-Juniors in the home of Betty Ramsey on Centennial street. Speakers were Jane Allen and Betty Cole.

After the program the girls had an informal time. The next meeting was announced for the home of Burdeen John, Young street, February 11.

EVENING AFFAIR FOR RECENT BRIDE

Mrs. John G. Keene entertained at her home, 806 West State street, Thursday evening in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Laurence Foster Cox, of New Wilmington, the former Lillian Margaret Keene, whose marriage took place January 15.

The delightfully informal evening was featured with a shower of lovely linen for the bride. Cards were in play, the pretty favors going to Miss Frances Wagner and Mrs. R. H. Davis.

When luncheon time arrived the guests were invited to the dining room illuminated with candlelight, where they found twelve places arranged at a beautiful table. The centerpiece was a bouquet of roses and a pink and white cake with favors, attractive little white lace umbrellas tied with pink bows. The hostess served a delicious menu.

RE DEAL CLUB DINNER AFFAIR

Re Deal club girls enjoyed dinner at seven Thursday evening in a popular downtown tea room. Mrs. Claude C. Crill was the hostess.

The table was colorfully appointed with fiesta dishes and a fragrant bouquet of flowers. After dinner hours were spent at bridge the smart favors going to Mrs. Fred Williams and Clara Bernine. Miss Hazel Armstrong was a visitor.

In a fortnight, the next meeting will take place, with the hostess to be determined.

GRAMODA MEMBERS HONOR BIRTHDAY

A special tureen dinner party, featured the gathering of Gramoda Kensington members Thursday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. T. A. McCurdy, on Milton street. The occasion formed a medium of celebrating the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Robert Grooms, one of their number.

The group was served at a beautifully appointed table, the Valentine motif predominating throughout and a large tiered birthday cake adorning the center. At an appropriate time, Mrs. Grooms was presented with a handsome gift in behalf of the club.

A short business discussion ensued, with an election of officers taking place. Those who will serve during 1937, include Mrs. William G. Robinson, president; Mrs. E. H. Smith, vice president; Mrs. W. B. McIvor, secretary and treasurer.

Mrs. Robert Grooms will be hostess at the next assembly, February 11, at a popular tea room downtown.

PARLEY-VOUS CLUB GUESTS THURSDAY

The Valentine note was predominent in the menu and table appointments arranged for members of the Parley-Vous associates on Thursday in the home of Mrs. Robert Slack, Cascade street, who entertained informally. The group was served a delicious lunch by their gracious hostess at a late hour, who was assisted by Miss Elizabeth Reynolds, her niece and a special guest.

In keeping with the custom of the club, the hostess was presented with a beautiful gift, in remembrance of her birthday.

Preceding this part of the program games were enjoyed under the direction of Mrs. Karl Wright, chairman. Those receiving awards for their success, included Mrs. Jack Dunlap, Mrs. Walter Patterson and Mrs. Lou Davies.

Plans were formulated for a similar event on Thursday, February 25 at the home of Mrs. Walter Patterson, Northview avenue.

DAUGHTERS OF LYDIA MEETING FEBRUARY 6

Meeting of Daughters of Lydia scheduled for Saturday afternoon at the First Presbyterian church, has been postponed until February 6, on account of the funeral of Mrs. Clara Young.

Hostesses for the meeting the week following will be Mrs. E. A. Delan, Mrs. H. A. Rugh, Mrs. C. E Brinser, Mrs. H. E. Bleakley, Mrs. S. L. McCracken.

BUSINESS WOMEN TO HAVE MEETING

A business meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club will take place at the Y. W. C. A. Monday evening.

In accordance with the usual custom dinner will be served at 5:45 o'clock. An interesting, entertaining and instructive program has been arranged by the research committee.

BOOMHOWER-DOUT WEDDING THURSDAY

A pretty wedding was solemnized Thursday morning at 11 o'clock, in the Clifton Flat Mission, when Miss Cora Leona Boomhower, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Boomhower of Youngstown, O., became the bride of Jess Leroy Dout, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dout of New Castle.

Rev. S. C. Baker performed the single ring ceremony before an embankment of ferns. The bride was attired in royal blue crepe and carried Johanna Hill roses. Mrs. Mary Cliney, sister of the bride, who served as bridesmaid, wore flesh colored crepe and carried an arm bouquet of Columbia roses. Wilbert Dout was best man. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Miles Stewart.

A wedding dinner was served at the groom's home, the traditional cake forming the centerpiece for the bride's table. The hostess had as aides, Mrs. Kirkwood, Mrs. Harry Druschel, Miss Agnes Dout, Miss Laura Kennedy.

Later in the day, the newlyweds departed for Ohio, where a reception and dinner will be given at the home of the bride's parents.

JUNIOR COUNCIL TEA AT COSMO CLUB HOUSE

The New Castle Jewish Junior Council members entertained in a novel fashion Thursday evening in the Cosmo club rooms, when past members and prospective members gathered for a "Gypsy Tea" and card party.

Tea leaves were read, futures foretold and the other various methods of advising one of their fortunes, were called upon to entertain those present. In addition, cards played an important part in the program with prizes being awarded to Dorothy Blau, Irene Schiffman and Mrs. Simon Skole.

Chairmen responsible for the success of the occasion, included Mrs. Simon Skole, Dora Winick, co-chairman and hostesses, Bobbie Broida, Irene Schiffman and Bertha Rosen.

P. G. C. Club

Mrs. Joseph Eve, Jr., and Miss Elizabeth Ungar won the card favors at this week's meeting of the P. G. C. club in the home of Miss Catherine Eve, on Superior street. Lovely refreshments were served.

It was decided to have the next meeting on Thursday evening, February 11, at the home of Mrs. Joseph Eve, Jr.

House Guests Return

Mrs. H. C. Weaver, of Fairfield avenue, has had a number of guests in her home for a week, the group just now concluding their visit.

These included two nephews, Harold and Donald Siggins, of Coty, Wyo., Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wolstencroft, the latter a niece, and a friend, Miss Dorothy Dorrington, of Pittsburgh.

SISLEY-DAVIS WEDDING EVENT

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Sisley, of 407 Birt avenue, make known today the marriage of their daughter, Ornetta Mae, to Robert Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Davis, of 703 County Line street.

The ceremony took place Wednesday, January 27, at 12 noon, in New Cumberland, W. Va., with the Rev. John H. Lamberton officiating. Later in the day, the couple returned to New Castle where a wedding dinner was served in the home of the bride at six o'clock.

Covers were arranged for the immediate families and a few close friends to the number of twelve. The table was decorated in red tapers and corresponding appointments suggestive of Valentine Day.

The bride is a graduate of the local high school, class 1933. The groom is connected with the Barnes-Snyder Motor company. They will reside in New Castle.

DINNER-DANCE FOR THE WOLVES CLUB

Among next week's social activities in New Castle will be the annual dinner-dance to be held by members of the Wolves Club and their friends, Tuesday evening, in the ballroom of the Castleton.

General Chairman D. D. Valiensi and his committees have arranged a most enjoyable program for the event. At 6:30 o'clock, the occasion will start with serving of dinner. The group will then enjoy dancing, floor show and a number of other features.

The committee includes: D. D. Valiensi, chairman, Sam Mooney, Jacob DeFonso, Al Sferra and Carm Sacco.

Phi-Geta-Ghi Club

Members of the Phi-Geta-Ghi Bridge club met for their bi-monthly session Wednesday evening at the home of Emma Patton, 714 Young street.

The early part of the evening was spent in bridge, with two tables in play. At the conclusion of the game, lovely prizes were awarded to Jane McClintock and Laura Snider. Marie Walford and Mrs. Clinton Glenn were special guests of the evening and Mrs. William Coulter, formerly of Scranton, Pa., was welcomed into the club as a new member.

Late in the evening, the guests were ushered into the dining room to a beautifully appointed table where a delicious luncheon was served by the hostess assisted by her sister, Mrs. Glenn.

The next meeting will be at the home of Jane McClintock, 715 County Line street, February 10.

Section A, Y. L. B. C.

Mrs. John Alexander, Harrison street, delightfully entertained Section A, of the Y. L. B. class, Third U. P. church, at her residence Thursday night.

In the absence of Mrs. Fannie Bevan, the leader, Mrs. Alexander was in charge of the devotional period. The rest of the evening was passed interestingly with sewing and conversing.

The hostess, with her daughter, Ida, as aide, served a delicious lunch. Plans were made to have a quilting and tureen dinner on the next meeting date, Thursday, February 12, at Mrs. Manly Bates' home, Beckford street.

W. C. Club

Mrs. William Ketzel charmingly entertained the W. C. club ladies at her home on Round street Thursday night and provided bingo for their diversion.

After the games a delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Ketzel, assisted by Mrs. Charles Clark. Red and white were used in the color decorations and valentine favors marked each place.

Miss Donna Lang was a guest of the club for the occasion.

On February 12 the club will meet at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Ritchie, Spring avenue.

G. N. Club

At the home of Mrs. Anna De Caprio on Lutton street, Thursday evening, the meeting of the G. N. club was held.

A delightful evening was spent with usual diversions topped off with an elegant lunch. The club token was presented to Mrs. Nellie Sansosti, and the high score awards at cards to Mrs. Rose Coli, Mrs. Teresa DiBiasi and Mrs. Barbara Coli.

Next Wednesday, the group will be guests of Mrs. J. Donati, of East Lutton street.

Section F, Y. L. B. C.

Section F members of the Y. L. B. class, Third United Presbyterian church, had a very nice meeting Thursday evening at the nome of Mrs. Clara Gardner, Oak and Spruce streets.

A large number were in attendance and were led in the program of devotions by Mrs. Mary Sines.

A tasty lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Paul Gardner.

The next meeting, in two weeks, will be with Mrs. James Wright, Clarence avenue.

Sunlight Kensington

Sunlight kensington was entertained Thursday, in the home of Mrs. Ada Jenkins, at Struthers, by Miss Ella Wilson.

A delicious chicken dinner was served after which Chris Johnson entertaineds with xylophone solo and women spent the afternoon socially. Miss Jane McGee was a special guest.

The next meeting will take place February 11, at the home of Mrs. S. G. Cooper at Scotland Lane.

True Blue Class

The True Blue Sunday school class of the Second U. P. church was entertained by Mrs. Stan Price, of Hazel street, Thursday night. After a short business meeting games and chat were enjoyed and Miss Jean Parker played a number of piano selections to the appreciation of all.

Valentine suggestions were used when lunch was served at tables-for four.

Nu-El Bridge Club

Mrs. R. J. White, Jr., of Pine street, will entertain the Nu-El Bridge club in a downtown tearoom Monday evening.

WHYLE-AWAY CLUB LUNCHEON-BRIDGE

Mrs. James E. Peacock and Mrs. Earl Wimer were special guests at the assembly of Whyle-Away Bridge club associates, Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. David Fisher, on Young street hostess.

She entertained at a nicely appointed luncheon-bridge and had as aide in serving the tasty menu, Mrs. Joseph Campbell. Cards claimed attention afterwards, trophies being captured by Mrs. Earl Wimer and Mrs. William Jones. The galloping token was received by Mrs. James Peacock.

Plans were made to gather again February 11, with Mrs. E. H. Fehl, on Ray street.

M. N. O. Club

Members of the M. N. O. club were entertained at cards Thursday evening, by Mrs. Clyde Mayberry of Vogan street.

Several tables of 500 were in play with the awards falling to Mrs. William Kennedy and Mrs. Gertrude Berkley. The guests were invited to the dining room for a nicely appointed lunch, serving which the hostess was assisted by her small daughter Della.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Earl Dean, Whippo street, Wednesday, February 17, instead of the 18th, the regular time.

Mrs. Bleakley Hostess

The regular meeting of the G. W. C. club was held Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. George Bleakley, on Chestnut street. Knitting, kensington, conversation and radio music featured the hours, with the serving of a tempting lunch following. Valentine suggestions were used in the menue and table appointments. Mrs. Charles C. Patterson, assisted.

After the awarding of the club token to Mrs. Marley Scott, they planned to meet on February 11, with Mrs. W. G. Campbell, Oak St.

EDUCATION VS. CRIME

A NATIONAL organization, the Big Brothers and Sisters Federation, Inc., reports, after a careful survey, that of 26,000 children observed in 25 communities outside of New York City, 2.3 per cent are "problem children." The "problem children" are defined as those who do not get along well in their studies and in their relations with teachers and pupils. They are, that is to say, mentally and socially defective.

What to do with these children is, of course, in itself a difficult problem. Lacking good home environment, worth while companionships and sound moral direction, they are hard to handle and cannot be reached through methods usually effective with normal youngsters.

Spread of vocational courses and introduction of organized programs for the use of leisure time have proved helpful in many instances, and it is possible that the only feasible solution lies along these lines.

The chances are that juvenile deliquency can best be approached through the scientific treatment of the particular challenge advanced in the federation survey. In any event, there is not much hope for improved crime control so long as three out of every hundred children remain susceptible to the immoral influences of wayward adults.

RANK STUPIDITY

Here is one answer to the question why the number of accidents resulting from automobiles in collision with trains continue so high despite the equipement of many grade crossings with flashing red lights in addition to bell signals.

At one of these doubly protected grade crossings in Maryland the Interstate Commerce Commission bureau of safety made a twelve-hour period check on the traffic a week after an accident occurred there, noting the behavior of drivers in addition to the number of passing cars. Out of a count of 841 no less than twenty-eight kept right on over the crossing with the bell sounding and the light working.

Such crass carelessness is proof enough of unfitness to drive anywhere. It amounts to criminality and should be treated as such. To point out as a counsel of caution to such individuals that since 1922 nearly 25,000 have been killed and approximately 70,000 injured in automobile grade-crossing accidents would be a waste of breath.

TEACHING MATRIMONY

Iowa State University pioneered in the establishment of courses dealing with matrimony as a regular subject in the curriculum. A few other institutions have been rubbing their eyes of late and asking if matrimony is not in fact important enough to merit this consideration.

It is a maxim that almost anything can be talked over. In this day and age there should be no squeamishness exhibited in college courses of study with reference to the great facts of life. In fact, few things today would tend to purify the relations between men and women to a greater extent than an impartial discussion of the same in class rooms; and open forums almost any other place, where the only motive is to find out the real truth, are beneficial.

Matrimony certainly is something that can be talked over. It is discussed to a fare-you-well, in our books and magazines, and very often with very little discernment or refinement.

Several lines of study being carried on in modern times tend to amplify the importance of matrimony in the lives of almost everybody. Can education much longer neglect this subject? Or must our colleges take up the study?

About such a matter as home life, adequate statistics are hard to obtain. A man's home is his castle. In an era when the federal government is tending to become more and more paternalistic, not to say inquisitive, American business men dodge all unnecessary questions which may be asked of them, or at least hesitate to answer any questionnaire which they think may have been gotten up in a hurry.

Many things can be known however without a book of statistics behind them. It is known that millions of young couples could have had a smoother early married life and could have obtained a better start with their homes had they received even a minimum of education in the running of a home.

The great benefit a young married woman enjoys if she has taken domestic science work in a first class high school is well known these days. The young husband with a skilled dietician managing his own kitchen will never be a fit object of jokes about poorly cooked food. Young women who have studied the problem of domestic buying as presented in a good up-to-date text book certainly are in a position to properly guide the finances of a home.

The more absolutely practical education a young woman can have the better fitted she is for matrimony. Consider what the ability to sew even moderately well means to any woman, younger or older. First aid information and the rudiments of nursing are forms of learning with which any young woman might well be proud to be acquainted.

Marriage is a great spiritual relation, and its guidance must reckon with the experiment that is being made in love, beauty and truth. Are such questions too undignified for discussion in class rooms?

The wind isn't tempered to the shorn lamb. It's always a hard-up family that draws quads and quints.

What Noted People Say

(International News Service)

LOS ANGELES—Edwin R. Kingsley, international president of Lions Clubs, explains their campaign for character building in schools: "A nation without morals is lost, as was Rome; and intellectual polish without moral sense is a menace."

NEW YORK—Miss Gwynne Ross, vocational expert, warns stenographers they will have trouble finding jobs as they get older: "Women over thirty don't go well with the modernistic furnishings in most offices."

CHICAGO—Prof. Harry Gideonse, of the University of Chicago, endorses America's reciprocal trade policy: "We must not expect it to be liked by everybody. Its purpose is to remove protection from the inefficient industries and transfer it to those that deserve it."

NEW YORK—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University, says Fascism and Communism lead to the suicide of civilization: "We must make the lover of despotism see the weakness in his doctrine and wherein lies the strength of constitutional democracy."

HOLLYWOOD—Ann Dvorak, actress, believes stage folk are cooler than others in face of danger: "Actors are so in the habit of acting like heroes in their daily work that they often from force of habit assume the role in real life."

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

SPANKING SOON ABANDONED

Most who teach parents and write for them, advise no corporal punishment at any age; some of them denounce parents as brutes who would ever lay the hand on a child to restrain him.

As a child psychologist and parent, I advise selective corporal punishment in the early years, to establish in the child, even before he can reason much, the unambiguous meaning of "NO" (rarely used), for safety, regard for the rights of others, and respect for authority.

A punishing program, carefully planned and carried out consistently by both parents, acting as one, before the child is four or five, makes it easily possible for both of them, in estabiishing adequate control of the child, to substitute milder but still effective punishment, and to abandon corporal punishment entirely thereafter; and to reduce verbal disapprovals almost to zero.

Once the little child will stay where he is put without being held or tied, he can, for punishment, be properly assigned to sit in a certain place or chair, where you can see him, for a definite period as measured by the clock. And 20 minutes is a long time.

Let the child, while serving this sentence, talk and visit with you if he likes; only he must not get down until the clock says he may. This punishment is painful. It is the restraint that is effective. The certainty and definiteness of it holds the magic wand. No use for the child to cry or beg or argue, he soon discovers. The clock can't be changed by doing so. It won't wobble. It has no emotions. It never has a headache, never gets nervous. By and by the child so punished will ask, "How long?" and stoically take his place and serve his sentence.

Simply Point to Chair.

Soon all the parent needs to do is to point to the chair, name the time to be served, and show on the clock where the hand will be when the time is up.

The wise parent then merely tells the child when the time is ended, if the child does not know, saying nothing more. She does not remind him of what he was punished for. If the punishment was well chosen, he knows. Neither does she ask him to promise not to repeat the offense. If it was good punishment, he almost surely won't.

This plan is so much better than sending the child to his room where he can get into more deviltry to warrant further punishment. The plan worked well with my children, and has worked well with hundreds of other children, as their parents have told or written me. Furthermore, it is the best plan I know to reduce the total amount of punishmen the properly trained child ever will receive.

CONVERSATION PIECE

Me: Let me offer my sympathy—or if you prefer, my congratulations. ....I know just how you feel?

You: You do, do you? You think you understand me?

Me: Yes, I think I do.

You: Well, I never heard such impudence, such arrogance in all my born days...What makes you think you do?

Me: In the first place, I've been living on this earth for more than 40 years and I've thought a lot about human beings.

You: You may have thought a lot about people, you may have discovered a lot of general laws and theories about human conduct, but how can you tell just which ones apply to me?....You may understand a million men and women, but that's not the same as understanding one....To come right down to cases—do you understand every single member of your family, all the time?

Me: Well, well—

You: Of course you don't! And when somebody smiles sweetly at you and says, "I understand you," are you pleased or are you annoyed?

Me: Well—

You: That's right, you're annoyed.

Me: Well, maybe you're right and maybe you're wrong, but I'll admit that when anybody tells me he understands me I have my doubts. After all, I'm my own private business and how can anybody else be so sure that he knows just what's going on in my brain cells or my heart? I may not be very complicated, but I'm not so transparent as all that.

You: Isn't that just what I've been saying? And what kind of argument is this, anyway? First you say you understand me and then you say you don't like being told that somebody understands you and then you imply that nobody can ever fully understand any other human being. Is that correct?

Me: Yes, that's what I mean.... and I apologize for speaking so carelessly about you.

You: That's all right. Perhaps you do, but don't expect me to admit it.

A husband is a man who can't stand a dirty, messed-up house except when his wife is away for a week or so.

Among things that linger on after we've forgotten their purpose are customs and half-empty medicine bottles.

That is, Americans don't believe in abusing the weak and helpless unless it's a stomach.

DEAR MISS MARKEL—Although I do not play bridge myself, I have been considering the advisability of giving a bridge party, inviting my friends, most of whom enjoy the game. Do you think this would be proper? INDEBTED.

Answer — The hostess — even she who enjoys bridge—is usually too busy supervising the comfort and entertainment of her guests to join in the game. So I do not see why you should not be hostess at such a party, despite the fact that you do not play bridge yourself.

Dear Miss Markel—Recently I attended a bridge party honoring a bride-to-be. Although each guest brought a gift to the guest of honor, the player who won the first bridge prize gave it also to the bride-to-be. This seemed totally unnecessary to me. Am I wrong? READER

Answer—She need not have given her prize to the bride-to-be, especially since she had already given her a gift. However, it was a generous gesture.

Northwest Once Dotted With Lakes.

By CHARLES P. STEWART

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Forty years ago, when I was a "kid", beginning to grow up in the middle northwest, the whole of that part of the country was dotted with little-lakes.

They were scattered throughout Iowa, the then Territory of Dakota, Minnesota, Nebraska and thereabouts.

Some of them were important enough to be known officially as lakes, with names—Clear lake, Spirit lake, Okibogee and the like. One or two of the number had pe-wee local summer resorts on their various strands. Others, smaller and unchristened, were referred to simply as "slews"—the vernacular for sloughs. Of these "slews" the most insignificant dried up in mid-summer, only to reappear at least once annually. The rest, seasonally varying in size, were pretty permanent.

SPLASHING JOURNEYS

In those days my father was a traveling salesman—firearms.

Now and again he would take me, a youngster, on a trip with him—a trip of a fortnight or so.

All of these trips were made about half by rail, about half by what was then described as Democrat wagon, a semi-modernized version of the old-fashioned stage. Few were the journeys upon which we did not splash, hub deep, through two or three of these "slews" per a dozen or twenty miles.

There were duck on them. And geese. And the pelican, whose "bill holds more than his bellican". Jacksnipes teetered on their banks also.

The sportsman who could not score a wagonboxful of feathered game in an afternoon's shooting felt that he was outraged. I have seen market hunters scoop royally edible fish out of the outlet from Spirit to Okiebogee lake with their hands.

ALL GONE

All this is gone.

I toured that same section four or five years ago.

Lakes shriveled to ponds. "Slews" non-existent. Semi-slews, of older time, as dry as asphalt. Ducks and geese a curiosity. Pelicans and snipe as extinct as the dodo. Fish?—brought in in cans from the seaboard.

Oh! the up-country has been drained—thoroughly.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

THE BOX OFFICE

Those who are envious and covetous find much about which to talk when the salaries of those connected with the Motion Picture industry are discussed.

It is hard for them and in fact difficult for most of us to realize what a change has occurred in the theatrical business of the world. This change has been occasioned by the Motion Picture. You may call it an invention or a discovery and you can probably remember the first pictures—perhaps you visited the Warner Brothers Nickelodium in South Mill street when those young men started out in their careers.

With the advent of the sound picture, otherwise known as the Movietone, another tremendous step was taken. There remains still one more—the Third Dimension and if you think the inventors and laboratory students are not working on the Third Dimension, you are much mistaken. This is going to come and you are going to have a picture on the screen that will show the length breadth and depth of a room or a forest or of any other scene.

Forty or fifty years ago, there was one theater in New Castle, seating about 1200 people. How many theater seats are there in New Castle today? Those 1200 seats in the old Allen Opera House were very seldom filled. The house was "dark" most of the time. Today the Motion Picture houses start in at least at twelve noon and run continuously perhaps until midnight, with an ever changing set of patrons and most of the seats are filled. In some cities there are enough seats in the motion picture houses to seat every adult citizen at one and the same time. The answer, therefore, to the size of the salaries of the motion picture makers is right there and translated into two words—the "box office." A million dollar picture has been known to earn five million dollars at that same "box office."

As in every walk of life" the value of a man's or a woman's service is measured by the "box office," and no man or no woman or trade's union, no amount of co-operative bargaining will ever raise the income of the human beyond the possibilities of the "box office."

PROUD AND HAPPY

He hasn't done so very well himself.
He's worn that suit of his for quite awhile,
When it was new he picked it from the shelf.
He never could afford to dress in style.
And yet there is a twinkle in his eye.
You never hear him grumbling life's all wrong;
You never hear him uttering a sigh.
He has a boy who's stepping right along.

He's always had to work from day to day.
He's always had to scrimp and save and plan,
And yet you hear him whistling on his way
That boy of his has grown into a man!
You see the two together now and then
And always there's that twinkle in his eye,
That look of pride and peace that many men
Would gladly give their fortunes now to buy.

He never hears the phone ring, half afraid
Of trouble or disaster or disgrace.
That boy of his I'll swear has never made
One needless line of worry on his face:
And always when you see him in a crowd
He seems to be the gayest of the gay.
He has a boy of whom he's mighty proud,
And that's success, as every man would say.

Scouts Plan Anniversary

Complete Program Is Arranged For Week Of February 6 To 13

Boy Scouts in the local district will celebrate anniversary week from Saturday, February 6, to Saturday, February 13. Each day in the week will be full of activities for scouters, ar, elaborate program having been planned by the council committee.

This program has just been completed and the Boy Scout troops and troopers in this vicinity have the following schedule for anniversary week.

Saturday, February 6. M. D. Cohn manager of the Penn Theatre has invited all Lawrence county Boy Scouts to attend a special motion picture and program at 10 o'clock, Saturday morning.

Sunday, February 7. Anniversary Week Service will be held in the Third United Presbyterian church, corner Adams and East Washington streets, Sunday evening. The troops will organize before the meeting and march into the church in a group.

Monday, February 8. Every troop in the city will hold their regular meeting on this night, which will be termed, Parent's Night. A special program is being arranged by each troop for the entertainment of the scouter's parents.

Tuesday, February 9. Scouter's annual banquet will be held in the First United Presbyterian church, corner Albert street, and Clenmore Blvd. at 6:30 p. m. A very interesting program of musical numbers and scout skits has been arranged. The speaker for the evening will be Dr. William L. Wishart, of Sharon.

Wednesday, February 10. This day will be termed school day for scouts in the New Castle schools. All scouts will wear uniform to school this day.

Thursday, February 11. The Boy Scouts in the Ellwood City District will stage an anniversary banquet. Scouts in this vicinity will attend the dinner.

Friday, February 12. This date was left open by the committee.

Saturday, February 13. The climax of the week will be reached at this time, when the Winter Jamboree for Lawrence County scouts, scouters, and scouts dads will be held at Camp John M. Phillips.

Acording to R. F. Davis, chairman of the anniversary week program the scout uniform will be worn by all scouts throughout this week.

For 1936, exports exceeded imports by only $34,258,000. In 1893 this country registered an unfavorable balance of trade of $18,000,000. Since that time the export surplus had never fallen below $75,000,000.

Barbers Enjoy Annual Banquet

J. B. I. U. Of A. Members Gather In Elks Club At Fete On Thursday Night

Thursday evening was a gala night for New Castle tonsorial artists.

Gathering in the Elks club, North Mill street, members of the Journeymen Barbers' International Union of America, enjoyed their annual banquet. The event was a marked success from every standpoint.

The occasion opened with a chicken dinner. Herb Samuels served in the capacity of toastmaster and did a thorough job.

President Frank Mele delivered a comprehensive address on "Newspaper Advertisements." He brought out a number of worthwhile points in his speech. Toastmaster Samuels called on William H. Fazzone who spoke on "Barber Science." His speech proved one of the features of the program.

Other speakers included Dan Rainey, Tony Martello, Andrew DeBacco, McNaney of Ellwood City, Voorhees of Ellwood City, McConahy of Ellwood City, Philip Sunseri. During the course of the evening, the group outlined plans for the coming year.

The committee in charge included Frank Fazzone, Phillip Sunseri, Herb Samuels and Harry Micaletti.

New Jersey Public Utilities Commission Probes Wreck Of Pennsy Freight

(International News Service)

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 29—Officials of the New Jersey public utilities commission were today investigating the derailment here last night of three coaches of a Pennsylvania railroad passenger train, "The Constitution" while enroute from Washington, D. C., to New York City.

One passenger, William Brower, 63 of Melrose, Mass., and a dining car attendant, Benny La Zaga, were injured and dozen other passengers were shaken. Brower suffered a scalp laceration and Zaga was scalded by boiling water.

Strike Deadlock In Auto Industry Is Not Changed

By EDWARD B. LOCKETT
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29 — The General Motors strike deadlock today formed a flinty focal point for concerted federal attack on labor strife in general.

There was no apparent progress toward peace in the automotive strike itself. General Motors and the striking automobile workers have stuck doggedly to their opposing positions since their peace conference collapsed. Nevertheless, the government moved in five separate actions with the hope of smoothing the way to, and perhaps speeding, ultimate settlement.

These actions were:

1. Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins dispatched Investigator John Porter to the strike scene to investigate union charges of General Motors coercion and intimidation which she said, if true, revealed "outrageous conditions".

2—The senate civil liberties committee sent one of its men out for the same purpose, with the view of calling witnesses and throwing the spotlight of public hearings on the situation.

3—The National Labor relations board moved to proceed with its 1936 complaints against the big motors combine, reiterating charges of "threats, intimidation, espionage and coercion."

4—Miss Perkins sounded out congressional leaders on her request for emergency legislation empowering the Labor Department to investigate the cause of strikes and recommend settlements.

5—A bird's eye glimpse of President Roosevelt's new labor legislation program, provided by Miss Perkins, revealed he will ask for a flexible collective bargaining law "even broader than the Wagner labor relations act."

When Miss Perkins and other federal officials admitted that accomplishment of all the objectives specially sought in the concerted federal action would not, necessarily bring the strikers and General Motors to peace. But they pointed privately to a "tremendous psychological effect" of the frontal attack.

Trotzky Talks Of Mass Trials In Soviet Russia

(International News Service)

COYACAN, Mexico, Jan. 29.—Arrests of veteran bolsheviks for the "next" Moscow show trial were brought about mainly because the fallen leaders "know too much" Leon Trotsky charged today. Nearly all are members of the "right opposition" who once lost, then regained party standing by penitently recanting.

Nikolai Bukharin, ex-editor of Izvestia, and Alexei Rykov, ex-commissar for posts and telegraphs, Trotsky said, "both ate humble pie long ago, but both understood too well the mechanics of the frame-up."

Hospital Company To Flooded Area

(International News Service)

CARLISLE, Pa., Jan. 29.—On orders of the war department, a hospital company of six officers and 92 men left the Carlisle barracks today for flood duty in the Ohio valley.

Ten ambulances and 21 drivers also were dispatched to Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indiana. The hospital unit, under command of Capt. A. L. Gorby, was to take over a field hospital of 300 patients at Louisville.

Wage Increases Granted Workers In Glass Plants

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Jan. 29—Two weeks of amicable negotiations ended today with the signing of a new one-year contract granting wage increases of eight cents an hour to 3,000 employes of independent flat glass manufacturers.

Glen W. McCabe, president of the federation of flat glass workers of America, said the new contract "provides also for preferential employment of our members before any others are hired."

Companies signing the agreement included the American Window glass with principal plants at Arnold, Jeannette and Bell Vernon, Pa.

PUTS SIDE-SHOW AT FAIRS ON SPOT

(International News Service)

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Jan. 29.—Bearded ladies, cigarette fiends, sword swallowers and hula-hula dancers are "on the spot' as future attractions at Pennsylvania county fairs.

One group of fair officials says the traditional midway and side-show is outmoded and should be replaced with more up-to-date attractions. To which argument another camp of executives in the state association of county fairs replies in effect—"do away with the freaks?—over our dead bodies"

Herbert M. Beary, secretary of the great Allentown fair, is the chief spokesman to date against the proposals to "streamline" the fairs.

Labor Federation For O'Mahoney Bill

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—The American Federation of Labor, represented by William Green, president, today gave its support to the O'Mahoney bill which would grant the federal government authority to license all corporations engaged in interstate commerce.

Green, appearing before a senate judiciary subcommittee holding hearings on the measure, heartily endorsed its provisions for minimum hours and wages, abolition of child labor, and other regulatory provisions governing commerce.

MAHONING BOOK AT MACKEY HOME

At the home of Mrs. David Mackey, on Winter avenue, Thursday evening, the usual meeting of the Mahoning Book club took place.

There were 15 present, including one visitor, Mrs. Winifred Cooney. Various social pastimes were enjoyed until a seasonabl hour when the hostess with the aid of her daughter, Betty served an attractive collation.

In two weeks, the next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. F. McClurg, Fourth street.

Marsing Club Meets

Miss Margaret Lutton entertained members of the Marsing club, Wednesday evening in a downtown tearoom.

Cards were the main diversion of the evening, with prizes awarded to Mrs. Thomas Thomas, Mrs. Theodore Gunnett, and Mrs. Ernest Anderson. At a late hour the guests were seated about a table where a delicious lunch was served.

Mrs. Homer Miles, Cunningham avenue, will be hostess to the club on February 10.

Plamor Club

Miss Stella Kross of Charter street, was hostess Thursday evening, to the Plamor club providing two tables for enjoyable bridge. Awards were captured by Mrs. Mary Colucci and Mrs. Matilda Thellman.

At a later hour, refreshments were served with the help of Miss Catherine Cuba. Miss Bernadine Surgan was a guest.

On February 14, the next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Sue Seinkner, Terrace avenue.

West Side Club

West Side club members, met Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. Patrick Thornton, Boyles avenue for a social time. The hours were devoted to card playing, prizes falling to Mrs. Mary Travers, Mary Eagan and Winifred O'Conner. Throughout the contest, sweets were served.

On February 11, Mrs. Richard Hannon will entertain at her residence.

Loyal Ladies' League

Bingo was played after the regular business session was concluded Thursday evening, for the Loyal Ladies' league, in the home of Mrs. J. Sanford, Main street, and Crawford avenue. Prizes went to Messrs. M. Richards and J. Sanford.

At 10 o'clock, refreshments were served. For the meeting February 11, the hostess will be Mrs. Anna Richards, Maryland avenue.

Jewish Ladies Relief

Plans have been completed for next Tuesday evening when members of the Jewish Ladies' Relief will stage their annual card party in the Cosmo club rooms, North Mercer street. Mrs. Harry Pitnoff is in charge. An enjoyable program has been prepared.

Q. A. C. Club

Mrs. Merle Allen, West Washington street opened her home Thursday to members of the Q. A. C. club. Bingo was the pastime with Mrs. Frank Borio, Mrs. Ross Bevan, and Mrs. John Logue receiving the awards.

After an informal period of chat the hostess served lunch at a late hour, with her daughter, Marian, assisting. Appointments were in keeping with the season.

Mrs. Frank Borio invited the group to her home on Moore avenue February 11.

Willing Workers Assemble

Mrs. Owen Thomas, of Moody avenue, planned a number of very interesting games for last night's meeting of the Willing Workers of the First Congregational church at her home.

All participated and the winners were Mrs. David Mathews, Mrs. Carl Turner, Mrs. Albert Jones and Mrs. William John.

A short business meeting was conducted. Lunch was later provided by the hostess.

In February the group will meet at the home of Mrs. Sol Davies, Garfield avenue.

P. F. F. Club

The usual round of card playing was enjoyed by P. F. F. club members Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. George Gibson, Smithfield street. Mrs. Fred Conzett and Mrs. Harry Buckley were awarded with lovely prizes.

Lunch was served, the hostess having as her aide, her daughter, Verna Marie. Pink and white tones were developed in the table appointments.

The next meeting is dated for February 11, with Mrs. Harry Buckley of Whippo street, hostess.

Jedema Club Guests

Jedema club members enjoyed the hospitality extended Wednesday evening in the home of Margaret Kennedy, Richelieu avenue, who had as special guests the Misses Judy Boston and Irma Swanton.

After the usual round of card playing was brought to a close, prizes were distributed to Erma Swanton and Edrie Crabill. Lunch was served, the hostess having her mother, Mrs. Jesse Kennedy as aides.

On February 10, Miss Crabill, of Matilda avenue, will entertain.

G. K. W. Club

Wednesday, February 3, members of the G. K. W. club will be guests of Mrs. L. I. Johns, 505 Young street, the event to be in the form of an evening gathering.

Their last assembly took place in the home of Mrs. John Frampton of Highland Place with sewing and chat providing the pastimes. Lunch was served as the closing feature, the hostess having as her aide, Mrs. J. Wilson.

Guests Of Sister

Mrs. Josie Greer, of New Brighton, who has been spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. W. S. Caskey, of Mt. Jackson, will accompany the latter to New Galilee today to visit with another sister, Mrs. Frank E. Gilkey.

Mrs. Caskey will return this evening, while Mrs. Greer will remain at the Gilkey residence for a few days.

M. A. O. Kensington

Sewing, conversation and knitting filled in the hours for M. A. O. Kensington members Thursday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Elsie Derr on the Butler road.

In serving refreshments, the hostess was aided by Marie Burdette, this being a later pleasure. On February 11, Mrs. Ruth Lutz, of 221 West Sheridan avenue will receive members.

Lo-Cour-Chee Club

Mrs. Willis Campbell, Mrs. Andy Krestel and Mrs. William Gregor were fortunate in winning attractive favors at the Lo-Cour-Chee club session Thursday evening, with Mrs. Cecil Logan of Brooklyn avenue.

Mrs. John Wagner was a visitor, and following the games, luncheon was served.

BOY SCOUT Activities

TROOP 37 MEETING

Boy Scout, troop V-37, held a meeting Tuesday evening in the Sinawik Hut. Opening exercises followed by short patrol meetings were held.

Plans were made for an overnight hike. This will be made Friday evening to Camp Phillips. The boys will remain at the camp until Saturday afternoon.

Several members of the scout council were in attendance at the meeting.

Scribe, Bud Fisher.

TROOP 15 IN SESSION

Troop 15 of the First Christian church held their regular meeting Tuesday evening. Scoutmaster James A. Bowman led the opening exercises. He told the group the details about "The Plainsman" contest which is now being conducted.

Plans were made by the senior patrol leaders for patrol stunts to be given parent's night. This will be held during Boy Scout Week.

The sounding of taps closed the meeting and the troop was dismissed.

Scribe, Everett Hoffman.

TROOP 12 MEETING

Troop 12 of the Second U. P. church for its regular meeting, Thursday evening. The meeting opened with inspection for cleanliness, uniform and handbook, under the direction of assistant scoutmaster, William Zahnizer.

Scout oath, colors, and law, followed. Patrols held their meetings and transacted business.

Games followed, with a number of new games being introduced by assistant patrol leader, Harold Brown. The meeting closed with scout oath and sounding of taps which was also in charge of Scout Brown.

Scribe, John Senko.

Lawrence County Farms And Farmers

By H. R. McCulloch, County Agent

PRUNE APPLE TREES TO GET STRONG STRUCTURE

Lawrence County growers who are now pruning their young apple trees face a number of problems.

Inspection of young apple orchards throughout the state reveals that widely different methods of pruning are still in use, though there is an increasing tendency to train young apple trees to the leader type of framwork. This is a distinct advance over the older type of training to the open center framework. The advantage of the leader tree lies in its superior strength of framework. The main, if not the only, advantage to be derived from any system of pruning young apple trees is in avoiding weak structures.

From the standpoint of fruit production alone, the most profitable method of pruning during the early years of the trees life would be entire neglect, with the possible exception of pruning at planting time. Practical experience and experimental evidence leads to the conclusion that heavier production may be obtained without pruning than with any degree or manner of pruning yet devised.

Improvement of structural strength comes with elimination of weak crotches. Narrow crotches are always weak and elimination of one of the two branches is the only practical solution of this problem. If the framework will be relatively weak at this point even though the crotch or crotches may have a comparatively wide angle. This is an inherent weakness of the open center tree. In the leader tree such a condition must be corrected by either eliminating one branch or by pruning the branches with unequal severity which will result in the unpruned branch developing to a relatively larger size.

It is important that the tree be so pruned that the leader will be on the windward side. Variation from this practice in windy locations will result in failure to develop a leader tree.

With young trees, often the grower places too much emphasis on thinning and not enough on structure. The tree need not be thinned so extensively that even the small twigs do not interfere. When larger branches cross and rub sufficiently to make a serious wound in the bark, it is usually advisable to remove one of the interfering members. However, the structure is the important goal and heavy thinning on young trees is worse than useless.

MAKE COWS PAY SOME PROFIT OR SELL THEM

Dairymen of Lawrence County who wish to increase the net income from their dairy should check very carefully on the milk-producing or working ability of their cows.

All cows are not alike in value or usefulness to their owner. Many cows are wholly unable to pay their way at the present prices of milk and dairymen should do everything possible in herd management to protect themselves from loss.

Low-producing cows lead their owners into debt and discouragement. When records of production are carefully kept in the dairy herd, all low-producing cows on the yearly basis can be disposed of as soon as discovered.

While the amount realized from the sale of such cows for beef may not equal what the owner considers their real worth, the loss thru continuing them in the herd may become much greater than any fancied loss caused selling at market price for beef.

A re-adjustment in dairy herds seems to be necessary at this time. Cows should be treated as individuals; they should be studied and their records checked; the good ones should have good care and be fed liberally. The low producers should be moved out at the first opportunity. All cows kept should have the best possible feed and care, for it is the cow fed in accordance with her actual needs that produces milk at the lowest cost.

A constructive dairy program suited to the times is as follows: Record-keeping on every cow in the herd, weeding out all low producers, liberal feeding of good cows according to production, and the use of a good sire.

SOME TIMELY REMINDERS FOR FEBRUARY GARDENING

Branches of many of the flowering shrubs may be brought indoors and kept in a cool part of the cellar in pails of water to be forced into bloom. Forsythia and spirea are the most commonly used shrubs for forcing.

Many large shade trees can be moved by the frozen ball method at this season of the year. The U. S. D. A. Farmer's Bulletin No. 1591, "Transplanting Trees and Shrubs" gives directions.

When snow covers the ground around the trunks of ornamental flowering trees, such as ornamental cherries and crabapples, the snow should be pulled away from the trunks to prevent mice feeding on the bark.

Orders for flower seeds, shrubs, evergreens and shade trees should be placed with reliable firms as soon as possible to prevent delay in delivery.

House plants need exceptional care at this season when drafts excessive changes of temperature and over or under watering may occur. Most house plants will stand very little abuse. A mimeographed sheet on "Care of House Plants" may be obtained from the Agricultural Extension Office No. 206 Post Office Building, New Castle.

COLOR STYLES FOR MEN ADVANCE WITH THE AGES

Since American society began, our men have dressed in somber, dark clothes. They had no court elegant to set the styles for them as did the colorfully dressed European man. Early American men had left such foibles either by choice or by force of circumstances. All through early history they wore clothes made of heavy, severe fabrics most of which were made by their women folk at home.

It is interesting to notice the psychological effect of color, says Miss Mary Vogle, home economics extension representative in Lawrence County. Possibly in sheer relief from a prolonged period of mental stress and strain, men introduced color into their clothes, after the depression in 1934. Then, too due to the many college men entering business in the last year or two, fabric, line and color of business clothes have changed considerably.

Today even checks and plaids in soft colors are acceptable for street wear, although the less prominent designs are preferable. Colored shirts that harmonize with the suitings are popular. Gay ties, socks, handkerchiefs and sweaters have been more plentiful.

With a little thought and careful planning for the combination of colors to be used in any one outfit, the man of today can dress in both an interesting and pleasing manner. The darkest shirt colors look best with light color suits, such as a dark blue shirt with light gray suit and a gay tie containing blue, and a speck of red-orange. The tie colors might be repeated in handkerchiefs and socks. Or a dark brown shirt with tan suit and colorful accessories in yellow or soft green would be pleasing. Dark shirts with white collars and cuffs are too much of a contrast to be artistically pleasing.

The blond man usually looks best in any dark colors that emphasize his light coloring through contrasts. Warm browns, blue-gray, and gray-green are flattering colors for him. The true brunnette appears at his best in light or medium grays, tans and browns that will emphasize the richness of his coloring.

Men with sallow complexions should avoid wearing greens, bright blues which emphasize the yellow skin cast, the cream, biscuit, tan and gray, which result in a monotonous color scheme because lack of contrast. Dark blue, blue-gray mixtures and the reddish-brown colors are their best basic colors. A white shirt is excellent for it brings out whatever warmth the skin tone may have.

The florid complexioned man will look best in gray, black, blue, and sometimes yellow. He must avoid intense or light greens and reds which will add to his warm appearance.

Stripes, depending upon their value and distance apart make a man look taller. Checks and plaids made a man look heavier. The less prominent the design, the more suitable the fabric is for street or business wear.

PLAN MEALS TO HAVE COLOR AND TEXTURE

Of course, color and texture are important points in selecting materials for clothing, but they are equally as important in planning the family meals, says Miss Mary Vogle home economics extension representative of Lawrence county.

Foods present a wonderful variety of colors, flavors, and textures and can lend themselves cleverly to beautiful creations. Artificial color in food is unnecessary and inartistic according to Miss Vogle. Highly tinted puddings are far less attractive than natural products and no amount of skillful decoration can compete with the rare natural colors found in food.

What greater possibilities for artistic expression could be found than than those already present in such foods as carrots, red skinned apples, beets, brilliant jellies, oranges, lettuce and water cress, and a host of other common and available foods.

A meal composed of fish, potatoes, onions, rice pudding and milk, while dietetically good, should be avoided as it lacks color. Tomatoes, served either as a sauce or as a vegetable, would add a bright touch of color to such a meal and the attractiveness of the pudding might be increased by a garnish of bright red jelly.

One of the desirable ways to vary a simple meal, says Miss Vogle, is to introduce several qualities of texture. Soft liquid foods go well with hard crisp ones and juicy foods with dry goods. Soups are served with crisp bread, cheese with crackers, fruit salad with wafers and ice cream with cake or cookies.

Let's be color minded, urges Miss Vogle, and see how interesting we can make our everyday meals by adding some bright colored foods. Many are available from the garden and orchard but color combination is a product of kitchen craft.

SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

FLOOD CONTRIBUTION

Students of the Senior high school very generously contributed to the flood relief. Contributions were collected in the session rooms on Wednesday. Although the total amount has not been verified, it has been estimated that the money will slightly exceed $150.

NOT ALL GLORY

Many hours of practice go into the making of a basketball player on the New Castle team. All is not a path of glory attained by merely playing the game before an audience.

On looking over the practice schedule sheet of the team, it was surprisingly learned that the team has scheduled 44 practice periods in order to play 15 games.

These periods of practice begin at the close of school each day and continue many times as late as 5:30 in the evening. The boys very faithfully attend these practice sessions and it is to this fact that most of the success of the team is attributed.

SUPERLATIVE SENIORS

It has become a custom for graduating classes to vote for members of the class who for some special reason are outstanding and award them badges which proclaim their merit to the student body.

During the class day program on Monday the following presentations were made: Most Popular, Reid Shiner and Helen Wilson; Best Dancers, Reid Shiner and Wanda Wynder; Best Dressed, Trevor Richards and Laura Keeling; Prettiest Girl, Jean Snyder; Handsomest Boy, Tom Twaddle; Reddest Hair, Walter Grannis; Most Sarcastic, Bill Jaxtheimer and Vivian McCallion; Most Studious, Donald Lusk; Most Intelligent, Mary Ellen Henderson; Most Dignified, Donald Lusk and Mary Ellen Henderson; Laziest Boy, Harry Dinsmore; Funniest Boy, Bob Cole; Most Inquisitive, Helen Wilson; Shortest Girl, Rose Russell; Silliest Girl, Bettie Uber.

GERMAN CLUB MEETS

On Tuesday the German club held its regular meeting during the third period in Room 118. The vice president, Joe Lloyd had charge of the business meeting. Dan Schnebly, Leona Preisel and Bill Weinschenk were appointed as a nominating committee to present names for the new officers in the second semester.

The program consisted of a study of famous German hymns which have been translated into English and are well known and widely sung. Miss Riffer, the supervisor of the club, explained something of the origin of the words and music. The hymns selected were "Ein feste Burg ist unser Gott", "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God"; "Oder fraellshe", "O Thou Happy One"; "Ehre seid Gott in der Hoehe", "Glory to God in the Highest"; "Nun danket alle Gott", "Now Thank We All Our God." The musical arrangement is well known and played by the orchestra, and since many members of the German club are also in the orchestra and band, the program was of special interest. Miss Lena Richards, one of the city's well known pianists, played the accompaniments.

The purpose of the club program is to supplement the work of the class room.

GAME ATTENDANCE LARGE

The basketball game with New Brighton on Saturday night will start the second half of the New Castle basketball schedule, according to Faculty Manager Ralph Gardner. There are six games in each half and each team is played twice, making a total of twelve league games.

The largest attendance for the basketball games was at the Butler and Aliquippa games when over 1,000 people were estimated to have attended.

CLASS GAMES SCHEDULED

The following schedule has been organized for the boys' class basketball teams. Paul Cuba will act as the supervisor for all of the teams.

February 1—Senior B, Junior A.
February 5—Junior B, Sophomores.
February 8—Senior A, Junior A.
February 12—Sophomores, Senior B.
February 15—Senior A, Junior B.
February 19—Senior A, Sophomores.
February 22—Senior B, Junior B.
February 26—Junior A, Junior B.
March 1—Senior A, Senior B.
March 5—Junior A, Sophomores.

RASH ACT CONTEMPLATED

Among the eager seekers-after-knowledge at Ne-Ca-Hi, a small, but persistent dog is to be found. Known simply as "The Dog" he has been haunting the school for more than a week. His favorite spot seems to be the library.

One of the school reporters, well-trained in the old adage that "dog bites man is never news" was about to risk all for the honor of the school news column and bite the dog. At the last moment, however, the reporter was prevented from going through with this rash act—and so we go to press!

"ANNUAL" CONFUSION

Thursday morning the dignified main hall of the high school was the scene of great excitement as students poured from the upper floors and the basement to redeem their annual receipts. A long line formed which squirmed and twisted impatiently as the students awaited the distribution of the colorful blue and silver annual of January, 1937.

WRESTLERS ACTIVE

The wrestling team was unsuccessful in its first encounter at Grove City. The first scholastic wrestling meet in New Castle will take place on February 10 with Grove City coming here for a return match. Details for the meet will be announced later.

SOPHOMORE INVASION

Thrilled at the prospect of attending Ne-Ca-Hi, about 350 sophomores invaded the school Thursday afternoon for a tour of inspection. Coming from a number of junior high schools the new-comers were assigned to their session rooms and given their schedules. They spent the time becoming acquainted with the routine and discipline of their new school.

Since the student body had been dismissed the sophomores had the building to themselves and their self-importance was a precious thing. However, by experience we predict that the upper classmen will have their say about this newly acquired prestige and by the end of the first few weeks the self complacence of the sophomores will be a thing of the past.

NE-CA-HI PERSONALS

Among the teachers who have been hit by the flu, grip or cold germs last week were Ralph Weide, William Margraff, N. R. Casillo, Annetta Burry, Ethel Kelly and Elizabeth Williams.

Jim Higgins has been absent the past week due to an attack of influenza.

Louis Pearsall, who has been absent for some time, is back in school.

Ruth Klivans, of the Senior B class, was absent the early part of the week.

Mary Miller has been absent for the past two weeks because of an appendicitis operation. She is at present recuperating in the New Castle hospital.

Another victim of the grip is Bill Nolte. It is hoped that Bill will be back in school soon.

Edwina Connery is spending the week-end in Pittsburgh in order that she will be able to register at Carnegie Tech.

Marjorie Vaughn, who was absent for a week and a half with an attack of influenza, returned to school.

Miss Mary Perdue, of the English Department, has returned to school after an extended absence due to illness.

Romeo And Juliet Here Next Week

Special Group Price Reduction For English Class Students At High School

In connection with the showing of "Romeo and Juliet," the roadshow picture, at the Penn Theatre, Thursday and Friday, February 4 and 5, a special group price reduction will be in effect for the benefit of English class students at the high school who may desire to see the picture. This reduction will be on seats for the matinee Friday, the 5th.

All seats are to be reserved for the showing of "Romeo and Juliet" at the Penn. Reservations can be made starting Saturday in the lobby of the theatre where a special box office is to be opened.

"Romeo and Juliet," the most beloved romance of all time, is an inspired motion picture. It takes its place with the pictures that have made screen history.

For those who have read Shakespeare casually it will be a revelation. For the romance of Juliet and her Romeo is as modern as the love story of any boy or girl of today. Norma Shearer and Leslie Howard make the lovers of Verona real and human and understandable as they defy family hatred for a love that admits no barriers.

Never has Miss Shearer given a more superb performance. Never has she more clearly demonstrated the talent that has won for her the title of "First Lady of the Screen." She is Juliet from the first scene to the last as we watch her grow from a girl to the full bloom of womanhood. There is a bewildering loveliness in her Juliet. One is arrested by the pathos in simplicity and tenderness of her approach that soon develops into an emotional reaction. Her playing of the balcony scene with Howard, who wins new honors with her, beggars words to describe its beauty and charm.

But "Romeo and Juliet" is more than a great love story. It is a thrilling romance, true, but it is also a moving, action-filled spectacle. Filmed against the colorful and fascinating background of fifteenth century Italy, it is packed with comedy and tense, dramatic situations. The duel fought between John Barrymore, who returned to the screen to play the bawdy, lusty Mercutio, and Basil Rathbone as Tybalt, and that which follows between Howard and Rathbone, are certainly the most exciting ever screened. Fought with rapier and dagger they are tremendously realistic.

Special mention must be made of Edna May Oliver's characterization of the nurse, which she plays to the hilt for all of its uproarious comedy. Others in the outstanding cast whose work bears mention are C. Aubrey Smith, Andy Devine, Ralph Forbes, Reginald Denny, Maurice Murphy, Conway Tearle, Henry Kolker, Robert Warwick, Virginia Hammond and Violet Kemble Cooper.

It appears certain that Irving G. Thalberg, whose "Mutiny on the Bounty" received the Motion Picture Academy of Arts and Sciences award for the best production of 1935 for Metro-Goldwyn-Maver, has another candidate for that honor in "Romeo and Juliet."

Too, the picturization of the classic is another feather in the cap of George Cukor, director of "David Copperfield," whose deft touch and delicate handling of the great poetic scenes is always apparent.

Three Highways Are Blocked By Water-Landslides

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Jan. 29.—Landslides and high water continued to block traffic on three highway routes in Pennsylvania late Thursday.

The highways department announced that U. S. Route 19 between Meadville and Sheakleyville is still closed because of high water and U. S. Route 62 between Reno and Oil City is impassable because of landslides.

One-way traffic is now moving on U. S. Route 11 near Shickshinny and Hunlock Creek. The section was previously closed by a landslide.

Your Income Tax In A Nutshell

No. 5

PERSONAL EXEMPTIONS

In addition to the personal exemption of $1,000 for single persons and $2,500 for married persons living together and for heads of families, a taxpayer is entitled to a credit of $400 for each dependent, defined by income-tax law and regulations as a person under 18 years of age or incapable of self-support because mentally or physically defective. The term "mentally or physically defective" mean. not only cripples and those mentally defective but persons in ill health and the aged.

In order to be entitled to the $400 credit, the taxpayer must furnish the dependent his or her chief support. The credit is based upon actual financial depend ncy and not mere legal dependency. For example, a father whose children receive half or more of their support from a trust fund or other separate source is not entitled to the credit.

Neither relationship nor residence is a factor in the allowance of the $400 credit for a dependent. The taxpayer and the dependent may be residents of different cities. If husband and wife both contribute to the support of a dependent, the $400 credit may be taken by the other one contributing the chief support, and may not be divided between them.

A single person who supports in his home an aged mother is entitled not only to the $400 credit for a dependent but also to the personal exemption of $2,500 as the head of a family. A widower supporting under similar circumstances a dependent child under 18 years of age also is entitled to the personal exemption of $2,500 as the head of a family, plus the $400 credit for a dependent.

Under the Revenue Act of 1936 both the personal exemption and the credit for dependents are required to be pro-rated where the status of the taxpayer changed during the year.

Flood Control Move Is Started

Construction Of 39 Reservoirs Entailed In Plan Of Ohio Congressmen

By ROBERT HUMPHREYS
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Designed to prevent recurrence of the Ohio river valley disaster, a movement for an effective flood control system, entailing construction of 39 reservoirs on the river's tributaries, gained momentum in congress today.

Confident they would have the support of the Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Kentucky, Indiana and Illinois delegations, Ohio's 24 house members sought administration backing for the secret bill, authorizing a $150,000,000 appropriation for reservoir construction and establishment of an Ohio valley authority to supervise the project.

Headed by Rep. Robert Secrest (D) author of the bill and member of the house flood control committee, a subcommittee of the Ohio delegation will confer with house and senate leaders and then call upon President Roosevelt next week to seek his support.

The reservoir plan is the combined work of army engineers and the Ohio Valley Conservation and Flood Control congress, a body which has been engaged on the problem for 30 years, Secrest said.

Present plans would call for the erection of 39 reservoir dams on Ohio river tributaries in southern New York, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio and Kentucky. These would supplement dams nearing completion in the Muskingum river valley near Zanesville, O., and the Tygart river valley near Clarksburg, W. Va., which are WPA projects.

These reservoir dams are 15 in number. Another group of seven to be erected in the Pittsburgh area were authorized last year, but no money has been appropriated.

In spite of the fact that the dog law enforcement officer expects to be in New Castle before February 15, dog owners of the 8500 or more pooches in this county are slow in getting their licenses.

On Thursday few more than 1700 had taken out the little brass tags that indicate that your dog is licensed. Most of these are in the City of New Castle. While the tags were late getting into the office of County Treasurer Joseph H. Hartland, they have been in now for two weeks.

What is thought to be the oldest dog in the county has been licensed. James M. Hughes, principal of the Lincoln-Garfield school has taken out a license for his seventeen-year-old dog and this appears to be the tops.

Leroy Rice and Joseph Hayward were taken to Pittsburgh no Thursday by Sheriff Edward D. Pritchard to start their terms in the Western penitentiary. Both of them got smacked hard. Rice getting 3 to 6 years and Hayward getting 5 to 10 years.

For the year 1936, County Treasurer Joseph H. Hartland turned over to the school districts and the road districts of the city and county, $210,000 in delinquent taxes. In the last three months of the year 1936 over $80,000 in delinquent school taxes was turned over to the New Castle school district.

Rather pointed evidence of the need for a board of county assessors in counties of this size is seen in the report of County Controller Frank W. Hill. In 1936 over $16,000 was paid out to county assessors. For little better than half of that, a board of assessors could be hired, the assessments would be more equitable and the amount of tax money received would be increased.

Last year the list of the first ten license numbers was printed. A license in the first ten isn't any better than one in the middle of the list but it's a trifle easier for the owner to remember. The first ten this year follow:

Mrs. George Parker, 225 Boyles avenue, New Castle.

Lida Street, 222 Moody avenue.

Harold Mayer, R. D. 1, Ellwood City.

Dr. John Foster, 222 North Mercer street, New Castle.

Helen Venditto, 805 So. Jefferson street, New Castle.

J. Fred Rentz, 219 Winter avenue, New Castle.

W. H. Montgomery, R. D. 3, New Castle.

George T. Richards, 1711 East Washington street, New Castle.

Cowan McClain, 503 Waldo street, New Castle.

The scramble for low license plates comes with the hunters. Every- hunter would like to get in on the first hundred licenses but only 100 of them can. There is never any argument about number one in this county. That goes to Alderman O. H. P. Green, veteran sportsman of the Third ward, New Castle.

Revenue Agent Bonacci has been a much harassed man in the past few days. Seated in the corridor of the court house he has been aiding tax payers to file their personal property returns and all day long the line is fifteen to twenty deep.

Bright red pajamas are popular with the college miss. Worn with a dark woolen robe, they make an effective contrast.

EAT ALL YOU WANT SAYS DIETICIAN

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA—Fill up on the food you like advises Dr. Frank E. Leivy, research specialist in diets at Mt. Sinai hospital here.

Use your appetite as a guide in regulating the proper amount of food to be eaten, he suggests, and it will usually tell you how much is enough. Dr. Leivy thinks the Hollywood 14-day diet for a patient wishing to reduce is inadequate because mere toast and grapefruit do not contain all of the fundamental requisites of the human diet.

Old-Fashioned Apple Cobbler made a delicious new easy way

YANKEE Apple John—can't you just see Grandmother making it in an old New England kitchen? Can't you smell the spicy, fragrant aroma as she opens the oven door? Here's a new version of this grand old favorite, better even than Grandmother's kind. For it's made with Spry, the new triple-creamed ALL-vegetable shortening. Spry is purer, whiter, smoother, mixes twice as fast. Gives cakes, biscuits, pastry new fineness of flavor and texture. Spry-fried foods are crisp, golden, tender—so digestible. Try Spry.

In 1-lb. and 3-lb. cans

The new, purer ALL-vegetable shortening —TRIPLE-CREAMED!

YANKEE APPLE JOHN

6 tart apples, thinly sliced
⅓ cup sugar
¾ teaspoon cinnamon
⅛ teaspoon nutmeg
½ teaspoon salt
2 cups sifted flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
¾ teaspoon salt
½ cup Spry
⅔ cup milk (about)

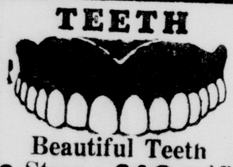

Fill a shallow 12x8-inch baking dish, greased with Spry, with sliced apples. Mix sugar, spices and salt and sprinkle over apples.

Sift flour with baking powder and salt. Cut in Spry until mixture is as fine as corn meal. (Takes only half the time with triple-creamed Spry.) Add milk, mixing until a soft dough is formed. Knead lightly on floured board for about 20 seconds. Roll into a rectangle 12x8x¼-inches and fit over apples. Brush with milk. Bake in hot oven (425° F.) 25 minutes. (Notice what a wonderfully tender, delicate crust you get with Spry! Digestible, too, like all desserts made with Spry.) Serve hot with Nutmeg Sauce. Serves 8.

NUTMEG SAUCE

1 cup sugar
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
2 tablespoons flour
Dash of salt
2 cups boiling water
1 tablespoon butter
1 tablespoon vinegar

Mix sugar, nutmeg, flour and salt in saucepan. Add boiling water, stirring constantly until blended. Add butter and boil 5 minutes. Remove from fire, add vinegar and serve hot.

Court Action To Oust Sit-Down Strikers Taken

General Motors Seeks To Clear Plants Of Sit-Down Strike Groups

FEAR TROUBLE AT STRIKE HELD PLANTS

By WILLIAM CARTAN,
International News Service Staff Correspondent

DETROIT, Jan. 29.—While General Motors launched its second court action to oust sit-down strikers from two Flint plants, Saginaw and Anderson, Ind., became the new danger fronts in the labor war today.

Union forces—2,000 strong, it was announced—planned to invade Saginaw Sunday afternoon to hold a mass meeting following a mob attack on six United Auto Workers organizers there.

In strike-torn Anderson, the union here announced, Ed. Hall, U. A. W. organizer, planned to go through with a "peaceful" demonstration today despite refusal of Indiana's Governor Townsend to furnish protection of the state militia against possible violence between striking and non-striking General Motors workers there.

Report New Attack

Meanwhile, police here reported a new attack on union men at the Michigan Steel Corp. plant in suburban Ecorse. Two C. I. O. organizers—Julius Sobonya and Demoff—were beaten up by three men, police said, after they distributed union handbills among workers.

Circuit Judge Paul V. Gadola in Flint scheduled a hearing at 2 p. m. Monday on the General Motors amendment to its original petition seeking evacuation of Fisher Body Plants No. 1 and 2, and an injunction against picketing. The amended bill contains 20 allegations against the strikers and names as defendants Homer Martin, union head, and 40 other U. A. W. and C. I. O. organizers.

Should the injunction be granted the sheriff of Genesee county would be called upon to oust the sit-downers within ten days. Failing, it would then be the turn of the national guard still stationed in Flint.

Sheriff Thomas Wolcott was booed out of the plants when he tried to enforce General Motors original injunction Jan. 2. The injunction, granted by Judge Edward Black, later was taken out of his jurisdiction when it was revealed Judge Black owned General Motors stock.

Flood Relief High Command Goes To Memphis

Government Leaders To Take Personal Command Of Relief Work

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29—The high command of President Roosevelt's flood relief council will move to Memphis Sunday to personally direct operations should the raging waters of the Ohio wreak further havoc when they surge into the Mississippi, President Roosevelt disclosed today.

WPA Administrator Harry Hopkins, Gen. Edwin Markham, chief of army engineers, Surgeon-General Thomas Parran, Jr., of the public health service and Col. F. C. Harrington, army engineer attached to WPA are the four who have been ordered to the flood zone.

Although the president reported continuing improvement along the Ohio, he pointed to the fact the flood crest had not yet reached the Mississippi. It is due at Cairo, Ill., Sunday or Sunday night.

The primary order given the government relief officials is to proceed from Memphis by boat—providing no additional disaster occurs—and go up the river stopping at all important flood cities. At those points, in cooperation with city officials, they will plan clean-up and sanitation campaigns to follow in the wake of the flood.

Mr. Roosevelt estimated this tour would take about a week.

Dreamer Told To Get Ready For Rockview

Washington County Sheriff Will Take Doomed Slayer To Rockview Saturday; To Die Monday

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Pa., Jan. 29.—"Taking it like a man," burly Robert Dreamer, 40-year-old railroader, today heard the death warrant consigning him to the fatal embrace of the electric chair at the Rockview penitentiary early Monday morning for the brutal "lust slaying" of Thelma Young, 17-year-old school girl, nine years ago.

His lips quivered, tears welled up in his eyes, his head lowered but he did not break.

Dreamer heard for the first time what he had long suspected, that the State Board of Pardons, virtually his last hope for life, had refused to intervene and set aside the jury's verdict.

After Warden Fred Brady told him the doleful news, he read to Dreamer the death warrant, a grim formality required by the law.

Get Ready To Go

"Get ready to go tomorrow, Bob," the sheriff said kindly.

"Dress up, you know you always wanted to look good," he added.

"Yes, I know I did," the prisoner answered, biting his lips.

Then his eyes filled with tears. He clasped his hands nervously, he looked from one to the other of the little party of officials assembled in the county jail.

"Well, I took it like a man, didn't I?" he inquired.

"Yes, you certainly did Bob," answered a deputy.

"Well, I never was one to be yellow," Dreamer continued.

"He said he has not yet given up hope that at the last minute he will be spared. Gov. George H. Earle can intervene but the custom is for the governor to abide by the action of the state board of pardons.

Denies Louden Slaying

Again, as he has done almost every day, Dreamer denied any knowledge of the slaying of Elizabeth Louden, 16, a domestic whose nude and ravished body was found in the woods at Walker Mills near Pittsburgh.

"I never knew the girl; I don't know anything about it," Dreamer said again today.

Sheriff George R. Mosley, who has become a close confidant of the prisoner, spoke with him today about both slayings and reported that with utmost earnestness Dreamer again insisted he was innocent of them both.

He will leave for the death house at Rockview early tomorrow morning.

Believed to be the first case of its kind, a collision between two pedestrians in Chesham, England, has resulted in the death of Thomas Saunders, aged 86, from a fractured skull. The men ran into each other near Saunders' home. At the inquest a verdict of death by misadventure was returned.

Pumpers Taken To Louisville

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 29.—Complying with a midnight plea from Mayor Neville Miller of flood-ravaged Louisville, thirteen Philadelphia firemen and two fire engines, both pumpers, today were placed aboard a train headed for the Ohio valley.

Three operators of the Philadelphia fire alarm system also departed by plane for the stricken Kentucky metropolis. Wednesday this city sent 115 policemen to Louisville in response to a radio plea for "uniformed policemen".

Identify Body Of Man Found Shot Near Erie

Believe Joseph Michno, Of Fort William, Canada, Was Suicide Victim

(International News Service)

ERIE Pa., Jan. 29. — The body of a man found shot to death here yesterday, was identified today as that of Joseph Michno, of Fort William, Canada, according to police.

Identification was established by a cousin, Rudolph Chermal of Fairview, near here.

At the county morgue today, police expressed a reluctance to close the case although Coroner Walter G. Stroble labeled the death as suicide.

The body was found in a parked automobile. The temple had been shattered by a bullet. A .22 calibre rifle lay nearby, police said.

Would Construct Weir In Shenango River At Sharon

(International News Service)

SHARON, Pa., Jan. 29.—Two Sharon district assemblymen today planned to introduce a bill in the house Monday night requesting an appropriation of $22.000 for the construction of a weir in the Shennango river here.

Assemblymen William J. Thomas of Farrell and Thomas Lyons of Sharon will sponsor the bill in the lower body while Senator Glen R. Law of Sharpsville will do likewise in the senate.

Sought for two years, the weir will permit installation of a gage to measure the river's flow to determine the volume of water which should be released from the Pymatuning reservoir during periods of drought.

Revival Campaign Will Close Sunday

The congregations have increased at the revival meetings in the Dewey Avenue Free Methodist church during this fourth week of the campaign.

The message Wednesday night on "The Calculating Fool" held great interest for the audience. Last evening in a discourse on "The Blood of the Covenant" Rev. J. R. Bartlebaugh pointed out that "there is but one and only one cure for sin and passport to heaven, the blood of Calvary's cross." Tonight the special subject will be "Footprints in the Sand."

Sunday will close the campaign when at 8 p. m., Rev. Bartlebaugh will bring the last message, "The Swift Rider."

If you would discover the deliberate sins of a nation, notice what it quits when it needs world sympathy.

Sheriff Gets His Man, Nabs Horse Thief

Sheriff Has Unusual Experience As He Captures First Horse Thief In Century

(International News Service)

CANTON, O.—Sheriff Joe Nist opines that the return of the gay 90's first threatened by Mae West, has become a fact.

Canton is buzzing with talk of its first horse theft since the turn of the century.

Howard Gamble, with the hot hot blood of 19 years in his veins, a few days ago swung into the saddle and rode away on a horse that was not his own. The mare he was riding was 'Silver," favorite horse of a riding academy here. The two were headed West.

A telephone message revealed that Gamble and the horse were quartered for the night in a barn in an adjoining county. Sheriff Nist and his aides went after him —but not on horse.

Gamble talked freely. It was his love of horses that prompted him to take "Silver," he said, that and a desire to visit the wide open spaces beyond the Ohio border. He declared that after he arrived in Texas he had planned to write the owner of the horse, offering either to ship the horse back or pay for it.

Sheriff Nist suggested it was a long trip to Texas by horseback. He was curious why the youth had not chosen some swifter means of transportation.

Gamble replied, "It's pretty serious business to take a stolen automobile across a state line." The sheriff was forced to admit there were a lot of state lines between Ohio and Texas.

The 19-year-old boy started out with $5, and had spent $2.25 on repairs for his mount's shoes. He said he had evaded detection by keeping to the back roads.

Sheriff Nist has never had to round up a horse before. He said it made him think of Mae West and the Gay 90's. He said that all he needed now to put him in his proper setting was a pocketfull of silver dollars and a ten-gallon hat.

Young Conductor Smokes 3 Cigars In Daily Routine

Peter Decsi, 13-Year-Old Conductor Prefers Smokes To Sweets Any Time

(International News Service)

BUDAPEST.—A packed audience cheered Peter Decsi, 13-year-old conductor, at the end of his first concert. He conducted an orchestra of 100 members and produced pieces of Wagner and Beethoven. His mother played the piano in the concert. The child-conductor wore faultless evening clothes and lit a cigar at the end of the concert.

'I generally smoke three cigars a day," he said to this correspondent. "I was a little self-conscious and sometimes smoked fifteen cigarettes. As a rule I generally prefer cigars. I do not care for sweets, as do other children of my class at school. I love meat and like to have a good glass of beer to begin dinner. I do not care for other children. My friends are all adults: doctors, barristers, artists. Mother taught me to play piano when I was four. I work very hard and hope to give two or three concerts every season. Of course, I still go to school, but this is not very important. I do not care for sports and have never yet seen a football match. On my next concert I shall conduct the 'Requiem' of Verdi."

London Journalist Is Called By Death

(International News Service)

LONDON, Jan. 29.—Sir Percival Phillips, American-born journalist whose long and varied career embraced a dozen wars and revolutions, died in a nursing home here today after a brief illness.

Sir Percival, born in Brownsville, Pa., had been special foreign correspondent of the London Daily Mail since 1922. Previously he was on the staff of the London Daily Express.

Phillips was 69.

Musmanno Will Carry Through Court Charges

Will Push Contempt Citation Against District Attorney Park And Court Attaches

MAKES EMOTIONAL PLEA TO JUDGES

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 29—Shorn of his position as president judge of the criminal courts, Judge M. A. Musmanno today bowed to the decision of his fellow jurists and continued his duties as a judge in common pleas court presiding at jury trials.

By action of his 13 fellow judges, he was removed as president judge "in the interest of the orderly administration of justice" for defying an order by Judge Ambrose B. Reid president judge of the common pleas court, by attempting to hold a night court for drunken drivers.

Emotional Tirade

Musmanno stepped down after delivering an emotional and fiery tirade against his colleagues and Judge Reid in particular. Many times his voice broke as he addressed the crowded courtroom and he left the room with bowed head and slow step, tears welling in his eyes.

Musmanno had incurred the dislike of several judges and many attorneys for his sensational methods in his crusade against drunken drivers. Objections arose in certain circles against his practice of sitting up all night to hold court, acting as his own physician in examining tipsy drivers, speeding to the scene of crashes to hold immediate arraignments and taking motion pictures of unsteady motorists for submission to juries.

Plans Action

He had personally disposed of 413 cases of drunken driving while president judge, sentencing all the drivers to jail.

Musmanno declared today he was prepared to go through with his contempt citation against District Attorney Andrew T. Park and three court attaches, who obeyed Judge Reid and refused to act at Musmanno's night court.

War-Like Scene

The area presented a war-like scene.

Along the 2,000 miles of flood front, more than 900,000 refugees, their homes destroyed or damaged by flood waters as surely as though by bombs, were cared for in improvised shelters. At least 400 are dead.

Uniformed men—regular army men, state militia, state troopers—patrolled highways, shunting casual traffic to by-roads to give the right-of-way to rumbling army trucks heavily loaded with stores or with miserable refugees fleeing before nature's onslaught.

Tent cities arose overnight to care for the refugees. Army rules of sanitation prevailed. Milk and drinking water were boiled. Emergency hospitals established for the many ailing refugees. Men, women and children lined up for inoculation against typhoid and smallpox, before mess tents, and before supply tents where Red Cross workers issued clothing and blankets.

Great stores of supplies were rushed to strategic points to care for the thousands to be evacuated from their homes if engineers are unsuccessful in their fight to keep the Mississippi within bounds.

Nearing Cairo

The crest of the great flood, moving slowly down the lower Ohio Valley, weakened its fury on Paducah, Ky., yesterday, was expected to reach Cairo and the confluence with the Mississippi within 24 hours. Memphis within a week or 10 days.

Cairo is an isolated, walled city, far below water level on the Ohio side. While the 4000 men who remained in the city to build up the 60 foot seawall to a height of 63 feet waited with fear and trembling, the Ohio slowly rose against the dike, creeping up to the 58.3 foot mark today.

Above and below Cairo there was widespread suffering, whole towns under water, marooned residents clinging to treetops, roofs, huddled in attics. Far back from the turgid waters the thousands of homeless huddled in concentration camps, dependent on the mercy and charity of the nation.

Raging flood waters of tributary streams in Arkansas and Missouri were cutting wide swaths of death and destruction as their crests moved slowly toward the Mississippi.

The St. Francis, Black, Little and other streams, receding in their upper reaches, inundated great sections as the flood waters moves eastward, now near the million mark the length and breadth of the flood devastated area from Cincinnati to Memphis.

Innocent Victims

Like the pitiful and innocent victims of war, the non-combatants, the refugees, a few pitiful belongings in hand, trudged into the concentration camps to receive succor from the Red Cross and other relief agencies while the combatants sought to stem the devastating tide of water.

Critical points along the battle front today were at Cairo, where only time will tell the fate of the isolated city now a virtual island, at New Madrid, Mo., where engineers feared impounded flood waters crumble the setback levees of the 131,000 acre floodway, the main levee at Mellwood, Ark., and the main levee at a point four miles below Hickman, Ky.

An army of men, augmented by more than 900 convicts, toiled to strengthen the levee at Mellwood, where a break would send flood waters coursing over thousands of acres from Mellwood to Helena. The levee, sapped on the land side by floodwaters of the White river, was reported weakening.

A break at Hickman would spell disaster for Tiptonville, Tenn., and the Reel Foot Lake area.

In the Mellwood area National Guard planes dropped notes warning the inhabitants to evacuate immediately.

POLICE TO PROBE DEATH OF MAN

Believe Fatal Injuries Sustained When He Was Held Up Several Days Ago

Police Chief Ralph Criswell ordered Chief of Detectives Ray Showalter and John Moore to investigate the death of Andrew Maciejewski, 1609 Hamilton street, which occurred this morning in the Jameson Memorial hospital. Police believe Maciejewski's injuries were inflicted by persons unknown about 9:15 p. m. January 27.

According to information which reached the city police today, Stanley Nogaj, 111 Chartes street, was driving his automobile Wednesday night at Moravia street and Center alley when he saw a man lying on the ground, and also two negroes, one of whom was going through the pockets of the man, and the other standing close by.

Nogaj stopped his automobile. The negroes escaped through Center alley.

Police Officers Harper and Golis took Maciejewski home.

The man walked into the house, but later a physician was called and the next day Maciejewski was sent to the hospital.

It was found there, according to the police, that Maciejewski had a fracture of the jaw and a fracture of the skull.

Hoover Heights Tabernacle Has Revival Series

This evening Rev. Frank Wyrekho has been conducting evangelistic services at the Hoover Heights Gospel Tabernacle during the past week, will speak on "Cheating the Undertaker."

The interest and attendance has been increasing nightly. There will be no service Saturday night but a full program is planned for Sunday. The campaign will continue through February 7.

Cotton Returns To Court House

County Commissioner Floyd L. Cotton returned to duty today after a month's absence due to an operation for appendicitis. Coincident with his return, Commissioner George H. Bolinger went down with influenza and is confined to his home in Neshannock township. Register and Recorder William R. Hanna is also out sick, as are several of his clerks. Several of the clerks in the county commissioners offices are out sick also.

Workmen To Start Task In Kilkenny

One hundred WPA workers will be sent into the Kilkenny district on Monday morning to drain the district, clean up the debris and aid in restoring the homes of the residents there to livable shape, according to J. Vale Downie, district director of the WPA. In addition, another force of men will be sent to the Lincoln-Garfield school where the water has bulged some of the basement floors.

Woman Dies As Home Is Burned

(International News Service)

SCRANTON, Pa., Jan. 29.—Firemen today found the charred body of Mrs. Frank W. Harlow, 80, amid the ruins of her Elmhurst home, destroyed by fire last night.

The aged woman herself called the telephone exchange and reported her home afire. She apparently had been unable to escape after her call.

Waited 14 Years To Divorce Wife

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 29.—"Hope springs eternal in the human breast . . . I was in love with her and I owed her a debt of honor."

That was the reason Charles F. Hoffman gave Judge John P. Egan today for delaying 14 years after filing a divorce suit against his wife who, he claimed, had never lived with him since their marriage at Elkton, Md., in 1922.

He testified they were married while he was a senior at the University of Pennsylvania and that his wife had consistently refused his pleas to live with him, quoting her excuses that their marriage was illegal, that she had a deadly fear of childbirth and that married life was repulsive to her.

The wife, Mrs. Etheyele R. Hackett Hoffman, contested the suit.

Goodrich Plant Sit-Down Strike Halts Operations

(International News Service)

AKRON, O., Jan. 29.—The entire plant of the B. F. Goodrich company here was closed down today as a result of a sitdown strike in the compounding department last night.

Company and union representatives were to meet this afternoon to discuss the work stoppage.

The News, By Mail, One Year, $5.00.

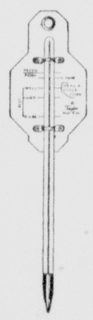

PORTLAND, Ore.—A young imposter's novel alibi got him off with a suspended sentence when he appeared in police court here on a charge of impersonating an officer. The 19-year-old youth was arrested when he flashed a policeman's badge in a beer parlor. "You see, judge," he told Police Judge Cohn, "I only showed the badge so tney wouldn't sell beer to my girl—I don't like to have her drink!" He was given a 30-day suspended sentence.

"What are you crying for?"

"The doctor has taken out one of my teeth."

Coast Guard Boats Enroute To Cairo Pass Through Here

Coast Guardsmen Stop At Mahoningtown Station For Supper Last Night

Shortly after 5 o'clock Thursday evening, a trainload of coast guard boats stopped long enough at the Seventh Ward station, of the B. & O. Railroad to secure food for the United States coast guardsmen who accompanied the boats.

It was a 17 car train, 15 of the cars carrying the boats, and the remaining two being filled with men to man the boats in the flood zone. According to a B. & O. man, the boats are enroute to Cairo, Ill., where a flood crest of 63-feet is expected within a very short time.

The city of Cairo is located at the junction of the Ohio and the Mississippi rivers.

Most of the boats were of the cabin type, but there were a few of the smaller motor boats. A stop of about 10 minutes was made at the local station, and while there, many persons were attracted by the train.

The boats were from Jersey City, N. J.

B. W. R. MEMBERS IN PITTSBURGH

Fifteen members of the B. W. R. club journeyed to Pittsburgh, on Thursday where they spent an enjoyable day "doing" the town and taking in sights.

After enjoying a delicious dinner in the evening, the remaining hours were devoted to a theatre party, the group returning to their homes at a late hour.

Plan Anniversary Dinner At Meeting

G. I. A.'s Complete Plans For Dinner At Business Meeting On Thursday

On Thursday afternoon, members of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers held their regular bi-weekly meeting in the Legion Hall, North Jefferson street.

Important business was transacted during the meeting. Plans were completed for their annual anniversary party, which will be held Thursday evening, February 11, in the Legion Hall.

Dinner will be served promptly at 6 o'clock. All members and their families are invited.

WORD RECEIVED OF DEATH

Friends will be sorry to hear of the sudden death of Wathena Orndiff, a former resident of this ward, who died Sunday at Joplin, Missouri. Miss Orndiff is well known here having made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hamilton on North Cedar street.

She attended the Mahoning M. E. church, was student of Westminster college, transferring later to Allegheny college. Her death comes as a shock to the community. The full particulars of her death have not been learned.

Loan Association Elects Officers

The annua' stockholders meeting of the Mahoning Finance and Loan Association was held Thursday evening in the office of the campany on North Liberty street.

After the regular routine of work and business was completed, officers were elected for the year.

President, Harry L. Elder; vice president, C. H. Hilborn; secretary and treasurer, John M. Bevan; director for 2 years, J. R. Mornes; C. A. Patterson, E. A. Hennon, George Meyer.

The association reports a very sucessful year and it is hoped to have a better one in 1937.

Eckerd's Drug Store Offers FREE Sample of New High Blood Pressure Treatment

Every High Blood Pressure Sufferer in New Castle is urged to go to Eckerd's Drug Store, 118 E. Washington St., and receive a free sample of ALLIMIN Essence of Garlic Parsley Tablets for High Blood Pressure as well as a booklet of valuable information. These tablets are made by a prominent Chicago concern and according to reports from doctors they are most effective in reducing High Blood Pressure, relieving headaches and dizziness. A special new process by which ALLIMIN Tablets are produced makes them both tasteless and odorless. A two weeks' treatment costs only 50c.

Davy Circle Meets At Local Residence

Frances Hyde was hostess to members of the Beatrice Davy Circle of the Mahoning M. E. church, Thursday evening as they gathered at her home on North Cedar street for their monthly meeting.

The president, Maxine Gillespie, presided over the business session, during which work was planned for the year. During the devotional period Mrs. Tommy Thomas read an interesting paper. The study book, "Consider Africa," was led by Frances Hyde.

Later in the evening the guests were invited to the dining room where a tempting lunch was served by the hostess. Valentine suggestions were carried out in the lunch and decorations.

Mrs. C. H. Hagadorn invited the group to her home on Newell avenue for their next meeting on February 22.

Safely—Comfortably

If you're not as popular as you'd like to be, not as active, healthy and keen in mind—you owe it to yourself to get rid of that fat—don't delay.

And here's a method you can depend on to reduce surplus fat SAFELY and SANELY—just take a half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water first thing every morning and cut down on fat meats, butter, cream and sugary sweets—before you realize it excess fat starts to disappear—keep it up every day without fail and in a few weeks you should not only note a great improvement in figure but in your health as well.

Kruschen is a superb blend of 6 separate mineral salts—it's wonderful to help kidneys, liver, gall bladder and bowels function properly. Jar lasts weeks and costs but few cents.

Mrs. Amelia Long of Douglas, Ariz., writes: "I lost 21 lbs. Not only my appearance but general health improved."

Home Guard Society Meets On Thursday

On Thursday evening, members of the Home Guard Missionary society of the Mahoning M. E. church, gathered at the church for their regular meeting.

Maxine Gillespie, their leader, was in charge of the meeting. During the evening, the group rehearsed a play to be given sometime in the near future for the older missionary groups.

At the conclusion of the meeting it was decided to meet again on Friday, February 5, at the church.

Water Recedes At Coverts Station

The road between Covert Station and Mount Jackson road, had perhaps more water across it than any other road in this vicinity. Between Covert Station and the bottom of the hill, the greatest depth of water is reported to have been nearly 12 feet.

The territory at this point is very low, almost level with the Mahoning river which runs past Covert Station. Therefore when this river rose, the land about it received a heavy deluge of water.

For the first time, the road was opened yesterday, and anyone passing over it may readily see where the high water marked the bank, high above the roof of an automobile.

Luckily no persons live in this vicinity which was flooded and therefore very little damage was reported. The road being washed out was the biggest item of damage caused by the flood waters. T. E. Shaffer, who lives about 2,000 feet back off the road at this point, found it necessary to get to his home every day via boat while the river was on the rampage.

SEVENTH WARD PERSONALS

Mrs. Q. E. Davy, of North Cedar street, who has been ill for the past month, is improving.

Dwight Mowry, of North Lafayette street is confined to his home by illness.

Mrs. Grace Fusco, of South Ashland avenue, is undergoing treatment in the New Castle hospital.

Mrs. Harry Wylie of West Madison avenue who has been ill for the past week is able to be around.

Frank Kerr of West Cherry street is able to be out and around after an illness of the past two weeks.

Mrs. C. W. Charliebois of West Clayton street is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Harold Simkins in Sharon.

News Briefs From City Hall

Police today removed from a South Side business establishment a "one ball" machine. The proprietor of the store was told to appear before Mayor Charles E. McGrath.

Police in scout cars were summoned to various sections last night owing to boys acting too disorderly and dogs annoying residents.

Park Commissioners Alec Samuels and Major Guy Wadlinger visited councilmen yesterday and informally discussed plans for the operation of Cascade Park this summer.

PROTEST SHOOTINGS

CINCINNATI, O. — Workhouse employes here are shooting starlings and sparrows by the hundreds in Washington Park but not killing them and this practice has brought a protest from Maxwell Pruitt. He appealed to council to stop the practice of wounding the birds and leaving their mangled bodies scattered about the park.

Over-Stout Women

No matter how heavy you are, here is an adjustable Reducing Surgical Corset, that will just simply bring you together into the appearance of shapeliness and for the first time enable you to be comfortable all day long. To any over-stout woman it will show a

Fifty Pound Reduction

And it will do this because it takes up all the bulge of the abdomen, rounds over the hips, curves the waist line to symmetrical appearance and brings the entire figure into comely proportions.

Many Other Corsets

Mrs. F. E. Williams from Wm. S. Rice, Inc., Adams, N. Y., is coming to demonstrate the new Rice Combination Corsets and Supports. She will give instructions on how to adjust them to lift up a fallen stomach (Ptosis), relieve the strain of the sacrum (backache), strengthen the weakened abdominal walls and enable them to hold up the sagging abdomen, and correct other defects which cause so much distress among women.

She will also show you how to handle any kind of rupture, from the simple groin and femoral, to the large and difficult Navel and after-operation ruptures.

Controversy In New Congress

Double-Barreled Attack On Provisions Of 899,000,000 Deficiency Appropriation

SENATOR LODGE LEADS ATTACK

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—The first legislative controversy of the new congress developed in the senate today from a double-barreled attack on provisions of the $899,000,000 deficiency appropriation bill containing $750,000,000 for work and flood relief.

One assault came from members of the senate's special investigating committees who demanded elimination of a provision inserted by the house forbidding use of federal departmental employes in future congressional inquiries.

Oppose House Action

The other was started by Senator Lodge (R) of Massachusetts, who offered an amendment proposing to distribute federal relief funds among the states on a basis of population and property valuation for expenditure by state authorities, free from federal interference. He declared this plan would wipe out all inequalities in distribution of relief funds and provide a fair system of meeting relief needs.

Senator LaFollette (R) of Wisconsin, and Wheeler (D) of Montana, heading current committee investigations, opposed the house action.

"If we cannot use the highly trained specialists of the government service in our inquiries, we will not get far with congressional investigations," Wheeler said. "We would have to go out and hire high-priced specialists, who would not have the experience of the government specialists."

Wheeler has been using ICC experts and 16 WPA workers in his probe of railroad finances.

Striking Battery Workers Will Aid Flood Sufferers

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 29.—Because storage batteries are urgently needed in flood-darkened Cincinnati, the sit-down strikers at the Philadelphia Electric Storage Battery Company today declared an armistice in their 24-day battle for higher wages and went to work on three 65,000 kilowatts batteries.

As they went to work, the 100 men selected to do the emergency job voted to a man to donate whatever wages they might earn to the Red Cross. The figure will be about $500.

Firemens Relief Association Has Annual Election

New Castle Fireman's Relief Association Elects J. Lee McFate President At Meeting

At a meeting conducted in their usual assembly rooms Thursday evening, the New Castle Firemens Relief Association held their annual election of officers, with J. Lee McFate being elected president for the term of 1937.

Others included, John E. Cromie, vice president; G. M., Buchanan secretary; James R. Long, treasurer. Directors elected to the board of control, for a period of three years, is composed of John Scott, William E. Weitz and John E. Cromie.

Postmaster Bill Goes To Senate

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Surviving the first real test, administration leaders have faced in the house this session, the Ramspeck bill to place first, second and third class postmasters under civil service went to the senate today. The measure would also permit the reappointment of incumbent postmasters for an indefinite term.

Tinker at Bat Again

Joe Tinker

Boy Scouts Seek Philadelphia Man For New Executive

A young Philadelphia Boy Scout executive was formally invited last night to come to New Castle to assume executive leadership of the Lawrence county Boy Scout council, it was learned following an important meeting of the council's executive board in the Chamber of Commerce office.

The Philadelphia man, now an assistant executive of the eastern city's council, attended the conference here. He will notify local leaders of his decision shortly.

The board last night, presided over by Louis B. Round, retiring council president, also approved the formal incorporation of the Lawrence county council.

Pastor Weighs 179 Pounds For Battle With Brown Bomber

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—With a ripple of amazement running through the crowd gathered for the festivities, Bob Pastor today weighed in at only 179 and will spot Joe Louis, who scaled 203¼, and edge of 24¼ pounds in their 10-round bout at Madison Square Garden tonight.

Bats are said to be valuable because they are great destroyers of insects.

CONSTIPATION MAY LEAD TO COLDS

Every doctor will tell you the first thing to do to avoid suffering from colds — is to be sure you are not constipated. Constipation clogs up the system. It weakens resistance, and infections take hold.

End common constipation by eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN regularly. This cereal supplies the "bulk" your system needs for normal, natural action. It also gives vitamin B to tone up the intestines — and iron for the blood.

In the body, Kellogg's ALL-BRAN absorbs twice its weight in water. It forms a soft mass, which gently exercises and sponges out the intestines.

Eat two tablespoonfuls a day, either as a cereal with milk or fruits, or in cooked dishes. Chronic cases, with each meal. Will help you stay regular without having to take pills and drugs—that often make conditions worse.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is sold at all grocers. Made and guaranteed by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Tax Assessment Appeals Being Heard At Court

Before Judge James A. Chambers in court room Number Two, the appeal of the Woods Estate against the City of New Castle in the assessment of property on Washington street was taken up today. The city is represented by City Solicitors William Cobau and Gilbert Long. The Woods estate is represented by Attorneys William J. Caldwell and Joseph R. McFate.

The estate appeals an assessment of $106,000 on 53 feet frontage on Washington street being an assessment of $2,000 per front foot. They contend that this is not in line with assessments on opposite corners of Mill and Washington streets, there being a difference in some cases of $300 per front foot.

For the Woods estate James B. Foster, John Abel and George T. Weingartner were called and testified. They testified that there would be little difference in the foot front value of the properties in this section. The case will probably take most of the day as the city seems to have a number of witnesses present.

W. C. T. U. and L. T. L.

WEST SIDE UNION

The West Side W. C. T. U. met last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. P. Shaffer, 1609 Delaware avenue. Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Tinker were special guests.

Mrs. M. Allen was in charge of devotions, Rev. Tinker gave the opening prayer, and Mrs. Shaffer read the scripture lesson. Mrs. Allen gave a very interesting discourse on temperance and Christian living. Rev. Tinker gave a timely and interesting address on the temperance situation, and cited many specific facts. He stated that in the first three years of repeal eight billions of dollars went to the liquor interests while at the same period eight billions were spent for relief and unemployment.

Mrs. Robert Long and Mrs. Allen reported on the annual W. C. T. U. luncheon. Mrs. Long spoke briefly on current topics relating to W. C. T. U. work. Other business was taken care of.

Praises Parking Laws, Gets Ticket

(International News Service)

MONONGAHELA, Pa., Jan. 29.—Mayor W. C. McCracken will probably be more careful today or any other day when he parks his car.

Just a short time after praising the community's new parking regulations, he received a tag for overtime parking. It cost him $1 fine and a lot of ribbing.

MISSING DEER

(International News Service)

LA GRANDE, Ore.—For the first time in the memory of "old timers" in this section, the hundreds of deer which roam the mountains surrounding La Grande have not come down to outlying ranches to feed immediately after the first heavy snow fall of the season. It is believed that the deer are feeding upon the foliage and moss of trees which have fallen during the past two months. An unsually large number of forest trees have fallen, but no explanation can be offered by woodsmen here.

Water Supply At Cincinnati Getting Short

Wells And Cisterns However Provide Plenty Of Water For Flood Refugees

(International News Service)

CINCINNATI, O., Jan. 29.—Rapidly dwindling reservoir water prompted city officials to open the water mains for only one hour today to conserve the supply, but flood refugees could get their fill of well and cistern water from 100 dispensing stations.

The flood claimed another victim when a boy tentatively identified as William Reese, 9, California, O., who was drowned and his sister, Emma, 7, narrowly escaped drowning when they fell into the California waterworks reservoir while playing.

City Manager C. A. Dykstra said he would establish a National Guard river patrol tomorrow to guard the city's 42-mile water front against looting and to keep the area clear in case fire breaks out.

He said the rule barring sightseers from the city is still in effect and that schools will not reopen before Feb. 8. The business holiday will be continued in the downtown section until utilities are back in service.

Serum Is Rushed To Penitentiary

(International News Service)

WHEELING, W. Va., Jan. 29.—Serum was rushed here from New York by plane today as authorities at Moundsville state penitentiary sought to head off a threatened diphtheria epidemic.

Nine inmates are suffering from the disease, one of them a woman. Four new cases were discovered today, Dr. C. F. McClintic, warden, announced.

Large quarantine signs were posted outside the prion entrance today warning that no one will be permitted to enter until the epidemic is under control.

Greenville Man In Army Plane Which Crashed Thursday

A 36-year-old Greenville man, a private in the United States army, was one of five survivors confined to Walter Reed hospital, Washington, D. C., today with serious injuries suffered in the crash late Thursday of an army bombing plane on a mountainside near Front Royal, Va.

He was John W. Anderson, whose home is listed as Elm street, that city. His condition may be serious.

Two army men, Lt. Joseph B. Zimmerman and Private Henry L. Nied, were dead today from injuries sustained when the plane burst into flames after crashing on the edge of the army remount station five miles southeast of Front Royal. The ship, flying from Pittsburgh to Langley Field, Va., crashed in a fog.

Demand Governor End Auto Strike

(International News Service)

LANSING, Mich., Jan. 29.—Aroused after a delegation of non-union General Motors workers threatened a "sit-down" in his executive offices, Gov. Frank Murphy today said:

"I am going to start an investigation to determine whether General Motors is behind a sinister, vicious, skillful attempt to force me to use violence in this strike."

His statement came after 25 anti-strike workers visited him and demanded he yield to demands two General plants in Flint be evacuated of sit-down strikers.

Canoe Service a la Carte

Families stranded in the upper floors of Louisville, Ky., homes are replenishing their larders via rope and basket. This cop, pinch hitting as relief worker, makes the rounds in a canoe laden with food. It might look amusing, but it isn't. There's no heat—and distribution of food takes time. (Central Press)

Musmanno Gets Invitation For Wife; He's Bachelor

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 29.—Judge M. A. Musmanno is willing to forsake his bachelorhood for President Roosevelt.

The jurist made this declaration of patriotism for the president today as he scanned an invitation to have dinner with the president and Mrs. Roosevelt on February 2, Groundhog day.

The invitation was addressed to Judge "and Mrs. Musmanno."

"If the president insists that I be accompanied by a wife, the only thing left is to look for one," Musmanno said.

"I would rather be married than turn down an invitation to dine with the greatest statesman and personality in the world today."

Fire Destroys Big Beaver School

Loss Of $2,500 Sustained In Blaze At Centennial School Wednesday Evening

(Special To The News)

WAMPUM, Jan. 29.—Pupils of the Centennial school in Big Beaver township, near Crescentdale, are homeless today as the result of a fire Wednesday evening about 7 o'clock, which destroyed the building and all its contents with a loss of $2,500. About $1,200 insurance was carried on the structure.

The blaze is believed to have started from an overheated stove. When discovered, the building was a mass of flames and it was impossible to save any of the contents.

Arrangements were made at the meeting of the board last evening to contact directors of the Glenkirk school and have the pupils transported there. It is hoped to have the pupils back in school Monday, it was stated.

There were 35 pupils receiving their education at this building, which was taught by Miss Esther Blatchford.

Successful Year For Loan Society

Farm Loan Association Reports Big Increase In Business During 1936

The Butler Production Credit Association of 159 North Main street, Butler, has just completed one of the most successful years since it was organized.

The number of loans closed during 1936 exceeded that of 1935 by 30 per cent. When the books of the association were closed on December 31, 1936, the volume of business was 65½ per cent greater than at the same time in 1935, and the number of stockholders had increased 25½ per cent.

This farmers' cooperative lending association was organized in January, 1934, through an act of congress passed in May, 1933. It is owned and controlled by farmers of the eight counties which it serves, namely, Allegheny, Armstrong, Butler, Beaver, Clarion, Jefferson, Lawrence and Indiana, with main offices in Butler, and branch offices in Indiana and New Castle.

Plan For Probe Of Favoritism

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Declaring that favored contractors have made millions out of flood control work, Rep. O'Malley (D) of Wisconsin today introduced a resolution to create a special house investigating committee.

The committee would be charged with the duty of investigating all contracts carried out on the Mississippi and Ohio rivers and tributaries.

Present Rings At Safety Banquet

Thirteen New Castle Men Receive Ring For Safe Car Operation In Year

FOURTEEN OTHERS RECEIVE WATCH

New Castle street car operators were among Penna-Ohio Transportation System employes to whom signal honors were paid in Youngstown yesterday by their fellow workers and company officials at the annual safety dinners of the Penn-Ohio system for the outstanding records the 27 men had established.

Thirteen of the operators had completed ten years without a transportation accident against their records. Among them was C. C. Wick, widely known operator of New Castle Electric Street Railway company. To each of these thirteen men R. N. Graham, executive vice-president of the transportation companies, presented a diamond-set gold ring as a token of the appreciation of the companies for their splendid accident prevention work.

Receive Gold Watches

Fourteen of the operators on the system had completed in 1936 five years in ten or less years without a transportation accident. Four of these men were well-known New Castle operators, M. E. Bare, P. N. Brest, D. M. McFate and J. E. Miller. To each of the fourteen Mr. Graham presented a beautiful gold watch, engraved with the Penn-Ohio shield, the name of the recipient and the occasion for the presentation.

As each man went forward to receive his award, he was roundly applauded by the dinner guests who filled the ball room of the Hotel Ohio at noon and in the evening for the celebrations given in honor of 256 operators, including all of the 27 in New Castle, who had completed either the first half or the second half of 1936 without a transportation accident.

Meeting with the men, who had made these records, were their wives and company officials, present to do honor to those who had operated their cars and busses many miles over busy streets in all sorts of weather with the highest degree of safety for passengers and other users of the highways.

Two Programs

The noon dinner was for the men who work in the late afternoon and evening; the evening diner for those who operate the early runs. Identical programs of entertainment were given at the two dinners.

With the presentation of rings yesterday 34 Pena-Ohio system operators out of a total of 175 in the service ten or more years, or 19 per cent, have received this recognition for having operated ten full calendar years without a transportation accident.

One hundred and seventy-one operators out of a total of 210 in the service five years or longer, or 81 per cent, have now received watches for operating without transportation accident for five years within ten years or less.

The New Castle men honored were:

T. D. Allen, M. E. Bare, D. H. Barge, P. N. Brest, C. C. Clark, C. E. Douglas, Edward Fink, D. K. Frazier, C. J. Garwig, J. E. Gorman, A. H. Heasley, M. J. Hunter, A. C. Kelliher, W. A. Kyle, J. G. Mariacher, J. E. Miller, J. H. McCommons, H. A. McConnell, D. M. McFate, Clark Pattison, W. L. Reed, L. O. Rowland, H. L. Shoaff, T. W. Spiers, R. G. Stewart, C. C. Wick, A. W. Wolfe.

Sees No Need For Special Climes For Tubercular People

New York State Doctor Says Disease Can Be Treated Anywhere Now

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 29.—Tuberculosis victims can be treated effectively in almost all climates and need no longer go to the mountain resorts or deserts, in the opinion of Dr. Robert E. Plunket, general superintendent of the New York State Tuberculosis hospital at Albany.

"Today we know that almost all climates have their share of fresh air and that in many cases patients can be treated in a city as well as in some particular climate," Dr. Plunket said, "and we no longer put them in groups in small houses situated in out-of-the-way spots, but treat them in proper hospitals."

MAN WILL ENTER SCHOOL FOR GIRLS

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 29. — Girls to the right of him! Girls to the left of him! And not another man in sight!

That'll be the position of Jules Cuburnek, 18, of Pittsburgh, next month.

He is the first man admitted to the classes at the Frick Training School since it was founded in 1912. His classmates will be 150 females.

A bit apprehensive, the young man said:

"Yes, I have a few doubts about meeting the girls . . . but I think I am equal to the task."

HORSE STEALING IS PASSING ART

(International News Service)

PHOENIXVILLE, Pa., Jan. 29.—The Schuylkill society for the detection of horse thieves had another easy year in 1936.

Secretary Edward J. Dunlap reported "no horse stealing during 1936," at the annual meeting of the society here and a checkup revealed that not since 1917 has there been any activity for the vigilantes. In that year a horse recovered by the society turned out to be a stray. Founded 76 years ago to curb the outbreak of horse thievery, the society now confines itself largely to social functions.

Missouri Town Evacuated As Flood Advances

Only Handful Of Residents Of New Madrid Remain In Town

(International News Service)

NEW MADRID, Mo., Jan. 29.—Residents of southeast Missouri, those who have not already fled, prepared to leave their homes today as the flood crest of the rampant Ohio moved towards Cairo and the Mississippi.

But a handful of this town's population of 2500 remained, most of them levee workers toiling night and day to reinforce the great dike north of here which is reported weakening.

Dynamiting of the lower end of the 131,000 acre Bird's Point—New Madrid floodway into which flood waters were diverted early in the week, had relieved, at least temporarily, the situation here. Opening of the lower levees permitted the impounded water to flow into the main channel of the Mississippi.

The river rose rapidly through the night, and if the rise continued New Madrid will be inundated within 24 hours.

An influenza epidemic is raging among the refugees quartered at Sikeston, Mo. Charleston, a town of 3600 population, is caring for 3000 refugees. Four thousand men worked on the levee north of Charleston.

Arthritis Traced Back To Mummies

(International News Service)

ST. LOUIS—The Egyptians had it—arthritis—but about ten per cent of the Americans who think they have it are mistaken, according to Dr. Ralph A. Kinsella, who addressed the 24th annual convention of Phi Beta Pi medical fraternity here recently.

Dr. Kinsella said that the mummies of Egypt frequently showed traces of the disease.

Sixty per cent of those suffering from the ailment, Dr. Kinsella asserted, can be aided to the point that if they don't recover completely, they at least show improvement.

Experiment To Test Value Of Required Study

Students From All Over Country Enrolled In University Of Denver For Experiment

(International News Service)

DENVER—A group of 53 freshmen at the University of Denver are enrolled in a unique nationwide experiment being conducted to determine the value of the traditional required subjects in high school.

"We have enrolled in the 16 colleges taking part in the experiment, nearly 2,000 students from 34 high schools throughout the nation," William E. Scott, assistant dean at the University of Chicago, who came to Denver to supervise the new plan here, said.

"These students, through the cooperation of the college administration, have been allowed to enter the university without the necessary standard requirements. They will be allowed to choose their own course and curriculum.

"Then, from time to time, the progress they make scholastically, socially and mentally will be checked and compared with the regular students' courses to determine which is doing better in college and out of college. We expect the experiment to be carried on for at least 30 years."

The experiment is being conducted from Ohio State university at Columbus, and is under the direction of the General Education association, a branch of the Rockefeller Foundation.

The 16 colleges taking part are: Wisconsin, Ohio State, University of California, Iowa, Dartmouth, Harvard, Columbia, Princeton, Wellesley, Smith, Barnard, Vassar, Chicago, Swarthmore, Pennsylvania and Denver universities.

FOG HORN HELPS

VICTORIA, B. C.—A fog horn, sounding when there was no fog, brought first aid to the small daughter of C. F. Chamberlain, lighthouse keeper on lonely Pine Island at the entrance to Queen Charlotte Strait. The child fell down a cliffside and was severely injured. Her father sounded the horn, which Adrian Davies, a fisherman, heard at Bull Harbor, 10 miles away. He rowed to the lighthouse, and later hailed the Silver Horn, a passing fish packet, which rushed the child to the hospital at Alert Bay, B. C.

Economic Approach To Liquor Problem

"Brass Tacks" On The Sunday School Lesson

By DR. ALVIN E. BELL

(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for Jan. 31 is the Quarterly Temperance Lesson on Proverbs 21:17; 23-20, 21; Matthew 24:45-51 and John 6:26, 27, 35, the Golden Text being Isaiah 55:2, "Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labor for that which satisfieth not?"

THE BOOK of Proverbs warns us against intemperance in these words: "Be not among winebibbers, among gluttonous eaters of flesh: for the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty; and drowsiness will clothe a man with rags."

Economic Aspects

That the use of alcoholic beverages has increasing economic aspects is evident from the nation's increasing drink bill. The liquor control agency of one state (Ohio) has recently reported official sales of approximately $45,000,000 for the year 1936, an increase of about $12,000,000 over the corresponding sales of 1935.

More significant still are the reports from life insurance companies showing alarming increases in rejections of applicants because of their excessive use of intoxicants. Rejections for this cause among applicants under 30 years of age in the year 1935-1936 in one large representative company amounted to 33.7 out of every 100 rejections, while this same figure for 1931-1932 was only 11.9 per 100 rejections. Uninsurability for this cause exceeded that for all other causes among applicants under 45 years of age. Surely this destruction of health of our younger group of citizens is no small or inconsiderable part of the economic aspects of this vital social problem! Of a similar nature are the figures of accident insurance companies showing that from 60 to 75 per cent of our serious automobile accidents involving personal injury or death are traceable to excessive use of liquor.

The Advantages Of Sobriety

The advantages of sobriety are dealt with by our Lord in his last day of public teaching in these words: "Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath set over his household, to give them their food in due season? Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing. Verily, I say unto you, that he will set him over all that he hath. But if that evil servant shall say in his heart, my lord tarrieth; and shall begin to beat his fellow-servants, and shall eat and drink with the drunken, the lord of that servant shall come in a day when he expecteth not, and shall cut him asunder, and appoint his portion with the hypocrits; there shall be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth."

The Adequate Remedy

No adequate remedy for the evil results of intemperance and drunkenness is to be hoped for by legislation, but only by reformation. The love of Christ must so dominate the life as to expel the love of anything which may defile the body, which in his temple, or injured others about one in the family or society. The Christian solves the problem by accepting Christ when he says: "I am the bread of life; he that cometh to me shall not hunger, and he that believeth on me shall never thirst. Work not for the food which perisheth, but for the food which abideth unto eternal life, which the Son of man shall give unto you."

The Golden Text

Isaiah 55:2—"Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labor for that which satisfieth not?"

Strike Closes Big Butler Plant

Spaide Shirt Company Prepares To Move To Tennessee As "Sit-Down" Strike Threatens

BUTLER, Pa., Jan. 29.—One of Butler's large industries, the R. L. Spaide Shirt Company, is closed today, perhaps not to reopen, due to a threatened sit-down strike. It is stated that the company is contemplating opening a plant at Cowan, Tenn.

John Sobczak, of Uniontown, organizer for the Amalgamated Clothing Workers Association, charges that the plant was closed before the union had an opportunity to present its demands, formulated at a meeting of 200 workers, when a union was recently organized. A "sit-down" strike had been planned, it is stated.

The plant employes approximately 600 persons, all of whom are girls except 25, it is stated. The annual payroll of the plant has been $500,000. Employes have been paid a basic rate of 32½ cents per hour, which is a continuation of the old NRA wage rate, plus a piece rate for extra productions, a plant official stated.

Rockefeller Buys World Fair Bonds

Rockefeller, Jr., Invests $250,000 In New York World's Fair Bonds

(International News Service)

NEW YORK—Some $7,500,000 of the pre-fair debenture issue to defray costs of the 1939 New York World's Fair has been distributed to business men.

Making the largest single purchase, John D. Rockefeller, Jr., bought up $250,000 of the fair bonds while James Speyer has taken over $100,000 worth of the bonds.

Officials of the exposition expressed the opinion that it "is gratifying to know that Mr. Rockefeller and Mr. Speyer, men of unquestioned business acumen, are in accord with our belief that the World's Fair will be the greatest thing for New York's business."

Construction work is preparing to get underway as the fair site shows improvement after weeks of work and effort. Several buildings are scheduled to be completed shortly. These will handle the business behind the fair, i. e., exhibitors arrangements.

The best home protection is an electrical siren with switches all over the house to start it screaming.

Paducah Held In Flood Grip

Evacuation Of Stricken City Is Being Continued At Rapid Rate

(International News Service)

PADUCAH, Ky., Jan. 29—Evacuation of flood-stricken Paducah's 40,000 residents continued apace today.

Struck by the crest of the Ohio river yesterday, flood waters, as much as 20 feet in depth in some sections, coursed through the city.

Sleeping Rattlers Lack Death Bite

(International News Service)

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah—They say "barking dogs never bite" and now similarly, they can say "sleeping rattlesnakes won't hurt you".

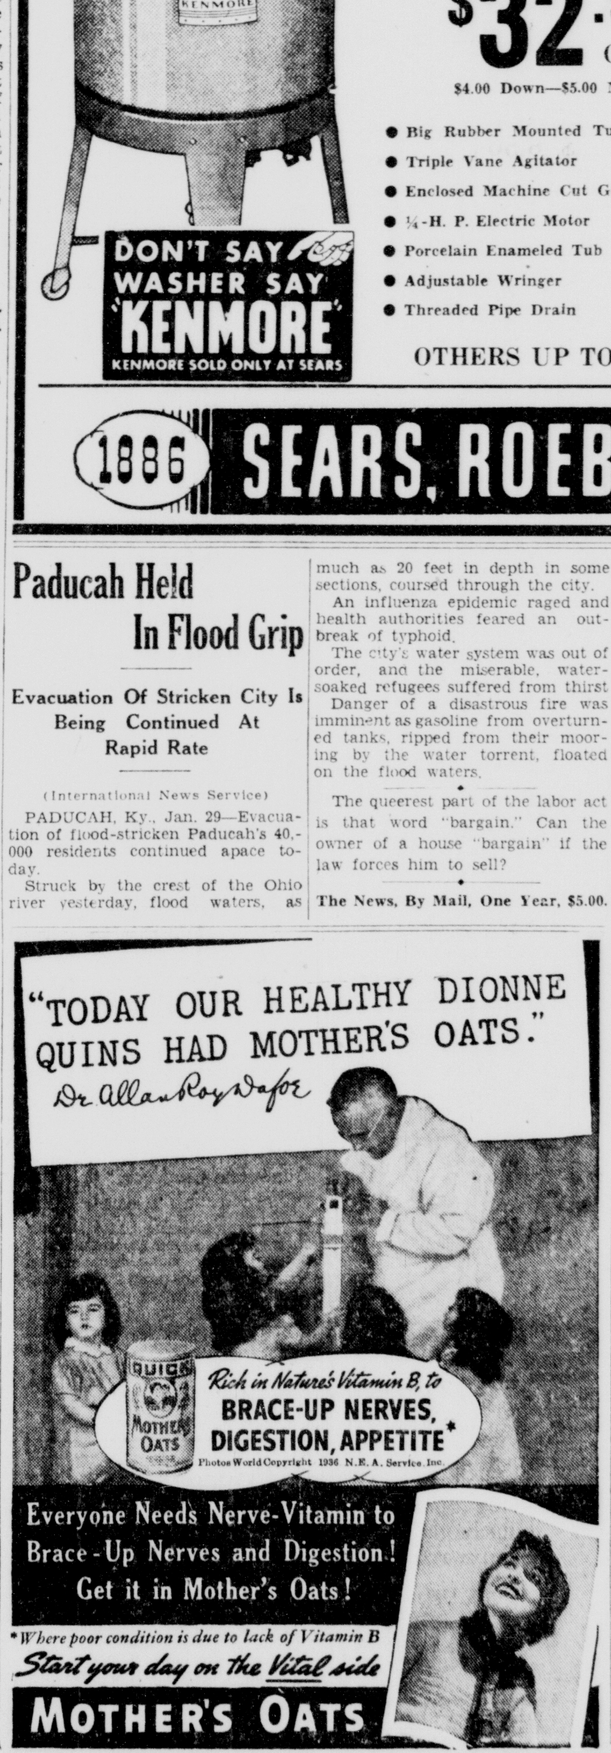

At least that's the contention of Donald W. Forsgren, research student at the University of Utah.

Recently while prying some boards away from a retaining wall in his basement, he felt a sting in one arm. Investigation in the university chemistry department showed that Forsgren had been bitten by a rattlesnake.

Dr. A. M. Woodbury, professor of zoology, explained that the reason Forsgren is still alive is that hibernating rattlesnakes have very little venom.

What we can't understand is why every freak measure turns out to be constitutional if it soaks the taxpayer.

Man has many anxieties, most of which disappear when he learns not to give a darn what other people do.

ASK CHURCH AID FOR COMMUNITY DAD-SON DINNER

The Townsmen Push Plans For February Event; Red Cross Helped.

Churches and civic clubs of New Castle today were urged to give full cooperation to The Townsmen in their promotion of the gala community fathers' and sons' banquet at the Cathedral on the night of February 26.

The young men's group, long prominent in public affairs here, launched plans for the celebration three weeks ago and General Chairman Alfred H. Owens emphasized today that "it's a community affair and not for any particular group."

Announcing that many churches already have pledged their support to the city-wide banquet, Mr. Owens directed a general invitation to all congregations and groups to join in the effort to stage a fellowship jubilee which long will be remembered.

"The banquet, as we plan it, will be something New Castle seldom sees," General Chairman Owens asserted.

Judge Benjamin Lencher of the Allegheny county court, will be one of the principal speakers. Another man known throughout the nation, has been asked to speak with Judge Lencher, and his acceptance is awaited.

Members of The Townsmen, meeting in the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday night, furthered the banquet plans.

The group heard B. F. Johnson, New Castle Water Company chemist, speak Wednesday night, contributed $15 to the Red Cross flood relief fund and pledged personal aid if it is needed. President Dean M. Staley announced the Scioto district boys' club will resume Friday, January 29, at 7 p. m. and said the February 5 and 12 boys' meetings will be open at 6:30.

LETTERS TO THE NEWS

New Castle, Pa.,
January 28, 1937.

Editor, New Castle News:

In view of the very bad conditions arising from the flooded conditions in sections not protected—like we are in New Castle and vicinity—I thought up the enclosed few lines that might be considered worthwhile and appropriate at this time.

Respectfully,
EDWARD J. DAVIS.

"NEW CASTLE'S OFFERING"

The year of 1936 brought Santa Claus and politics.
Now with those problems off the floor,
Let's view some assets at our door.
Add up our factories and our mills—
The coal and limestone in our hills.
Of railroads we can safely boast—
None equal them from coast to coast.
With Pymatuning Dam so near,
Abundant water all the year,
No costly floods, no long dry spells
Afflict us here—our record tells.
Our tin plate plants, the largest built,
Is filled with orders to the hilt.
Our pottery plants, each heads its class,
Few equal them and none surpass.
A power plant of mammoth size,
Costing millions—soon to rise.
Our banks, our stores, our hotels, too,
Prepared to put big business through.
Our public schools, for these we claim—
The very best—always our aim.
Our churches, hospitals, all compare
With excellent service, anywhere.
Our various industries, beside
We point to all with special pride.
Our state highways and county roads,
Support the heaviest traffic loads.
So Lawrence county, has you see,
Good reasons for prosperity.
If friends, we needn't tell you more,
If stranger, why not look us o'er.

EDWARD J. DAVIS.

State Will Send Flood Delegates To Columbus, Ohio

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Jan. 29.— The Pennsylvania State Chamber of Commerce Thursday indicated the Keystone state's flood-affected areas would make a "hearty response" to an invitation to attend a five-state conference on flood control at Columbus, O., February 3.

George E. Foss, general secretary of the Pennsylvania State Chamber, said he received an invitation to the conference today and that the Pennsylvania chamber "very likely" would be represented.

"We will also try to have representatives of local chambers in our flood-affected sections attend the meeting and expect a hearty response on this matter of most vital importance," Foss added.

CHURCH NOTES

Sabbath school at the Princeton Presbyterian church will be conducted at 10:00 a. m. Christian Endeavor at 7:00 p. m.

SURPRISE PARTY

Mrs. Paul Blair was pleasantly surprised by a party given in honor of her birthday January 20. There were 15 guests. The evening was spent in various games. New Castle guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Hanna and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hughes and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Luther Nilbert and family.

MISSIONARY MEETING

The Women's Missionary society of the Princeton church met all day Thursday, January 21, with Mrs. Dulcie Blair. Quilting was the work of the day. At noon a tureen dinner was served.

Mrs. Esther Shaffer led the devotionals, the topic for the day being "China" and "National Missions." Papers were read by Mrs. Paul Blair, Mrh. Rhoda Book, Mrs. Lottie Hogue, Mrs. Anna Boyd and Mrs. Illie Weisz.

During the business meeting the following officers were re-elected to take office April 1:

President, Lottie Hogue; vice president, Eva Shaffer; treasurer, Anna Boyd; secretary, Beulah McConnell; stewardship secretary, Pearl Morrison; literature secretary, Blanche Myers; leader of spiritual life, Illie Weisz.

PRINCETON NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hunt of Volant were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Boyd.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Weigle and son called on Mr. and Mrs. Weigle of Prospect.

Esther Weisz has returned home after taking care of her aunt, Mrs. Charles Weisz of Pleasant Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McHattie of New Castle were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bratchie.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shelar and daughter were Sunday dinner guests of J. B. Shelar of Pleasant Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Williams of Youngstown, O., called on Mr. and Mrs. Paul Blair Saturday evening.

Mrs. Beatrice Fisher of Caldwell Beauty school in Sharon spent the week end with her father, J. B. Shelar.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sherman and son, Charles, of Koppel, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Gibson.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Johnson and Mrs. Myrtle Johnson of Orwell, O., spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Parker.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Blair and family attended a dinner Tuesday night given by the Guild class of the Presbyterian church of Youngstown.

Eight little girls helped Mable Myers celebrate her tenth birthday Saturday, January 23. The afternoon was spent playing games. At a later hour a delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Myers and daughter. The honor guest received many beautiful gifts.

SAYS PERSHING HAS APPEARANCE

(By O. O. McINTYRE)

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—Thoughts while strolling: Why not scrap for a spell the torch singers, off-pitch crooners and ism plays? And substitute a little of the jovial slapstick of English music halls with some tunes and lyrics no more complicated than The Good Old Summer Time?

O. O. McIntyre

Look alikes: Randolph Scott and Eddie Peabody. Add highly efficient private secretaries: Julia Kelly, of the Hays office. Crack play ballyhooist, Nat Dorfman. The Countess Abdy who wears shoes without heels. And over in Europe there are a few countesses who haven't even got shoes.

With long white hair and whiskers Hendrik Van Loon would make a peachy Santa Claus. And with a stovepipe hat and sideburns, Dudley Field Malone is the John Bull on Punch's cover. Fifth avenue's best dressed clerk, Albert Mander. And does he wear tight collars?

When bushier coiffures are worn, Peggy Fears will have one. Highly talented Arthurs: McKeogh, Samuels and Baer. From the Follies to Othello at the New Amsterdam. A big gap in film fare until W. C. Fields gets on the job again. Grinding teeth sort of name: Crosby Gaige.

Rhymes: Mae Murray is a gal in a hurry. And Bill Corum is a one-man forum. All the dolls doing their hair in the middle—the Simpson influence! Or is it Lynn Fontaine's? That fop knocking me over to keep a date at the Ritz. Hope he gets whirled silly in a revolving door or something.

The town now has a cafe dance place devoted entirely to the rhumba. A Cuban friend tells me the correct pronunciation, despite radio blatting, is "room-bah." The new spot started off auspiciously and is going great guns. It depends very little on the Cuban clientele. Many of the local fast steppers have eschewed the graceful tango for the newer epilepsy. The most expert are said to be Jules Glaenzer, Erskine Gwynne and Jimmy Donohue.

Nazimova in her bleak Isben plays has acquired a personal following as definite as that of Ruth Draper, the mimic. When she appears in Hedda Gabler, Ghosts or the like she is assured of a packed house for several weeks. It's a cultured audience, long lost to the theatre. Everybody hangs on her words. The old you-could-hear-a-pin drop atmosphere. And at the conclusion, sans claque, the sincerest applause to be heard in the modern theatre.

No man in the public eye today to my notion has the magnificent carriage, superb stride and noble serenity of General John Pershing. He could easily go on, without makeup, as the dashing lieutenant in a romantic musical show and pitter patter the hearts of feminine pew sitters. I saw him faring magnificently forth along the avenue recently. Everybody along the thoroughfare, including the bus top riders, turned as on a pivot to watch him out of sight. And if he was not totally oblivious he is a grand actor, too.

Next to General Pershing and for his years, the late De Wolff Hopper had the most commanding carriage to be seen on the highways. The Ritz's Albert Keller is another headliner when he gets into the stride of his Park avenue promenade. Among the actors William Gaxton is regarded as having an athletic physique on and off. Another of the dashing oldsters is Whitney Warren, the architect.

Lucius Beebe, reportorial fashion plate, has been doing a bit of journalistic research to flush out—if any—the detachable cuff wearers in the metropolis. His rounds of the Sulkas, McCrorys, Charvets and other haberdasheries struck no news of addicts to the barrel cuff. Probably the last of the detachable cuffists was the financier and philantropist, George F. Baker. However piles of detachables are still to be seen on the push carts of the Ghetto.

Before the gardeniaed high pressure investment boys took me into camp I used to seek advice for my meagre savings from an old timer who sat at a roll top desk, wore detachable cuffs and swept his apple parings into the top drawer. He was always explicit. "Buy either government bonds or use sound savings banks." And was he smart!

AROUND CITY HALL

Council is giving consideration to a different system of telephonic communication in city hall, proposals having been made by the Bell Telephone company to the city. It was learned yesterday that two proposals have been made (1) for a dial system and the other for a telephone exchange. There would be four trunk lines. The cost of the two systems vary. The telephone exchange system, without the services of an operator would cost approximately $130 a month and the dial system about $180. solons have not yet brought the matter formally before council.

Council has requested Lou Pearsall of the Pearsall company to give them ideas as to how best to letter motor vehicles. All of the city cars and trucks are to be labelled as city of New Castle property. This also applies to police scout cars.

Councilman James L. Fink stated yesterday that providing the city buys a pump and installs it at the sewage disposal plant to force sewage into the swift and high water of the Mahoning river to prevent future "backwash" in the Kilkenny district, and the city decides to force property owners to divert roof water from sanitary sewer pipes, he will be one member of council who will not start the downspout campaign.

An alert citizen yesterday was responsible for the discovery that a Highland avenue man had expired suddenly some time since Saturday. Enroute to city hall, the citizen told the writer of several unopened newspapers on the porch, of the lights all burning and of no one having seen the man. The citizen then informed police authorities and within 10 minutes the police effected an entrance and found the man dead. Similar discoveries have been made here through tips provided by alert citizens. The citizen believed the man either ill or dead, hence his report to police.

AUXILIARY NOTES

The regular meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary of Earl J. Watt Post No. 638 was held on Monday evening at 8 when 19 members were in attendance. Reports were given of the four county council by Nettie Weitz and Emma Cracraft, which were very interesting. Decision was made to donate $10 for flood relief through Mrs. Dresler and $5 through Bessemer Girl Scouts for the same cause. Edna Masson gave a very interesting talk on "Americanism." The Mystery Box was awarded to Betty Seltzer. Mrs. Gertrude Kelley was appointed chairlady of entertainment for the next regular meeting.

PRESENT PLAYLET

The Auxiliary members were pleasantly surprised by the presentation of a playlet of the following members, Maude Carr, Belle Kerr, Mona Reed, May Pitts, Sarah Bell Gibson, Blanch Fitts, Laura Seltzer and Anna Ball.

WASHINGTON BIRTHDAY MEETING

The American Legion Auxiliary and Post members of Earl J. Watt unit will hold a joint meeting for Washington's birthday when the following committee will have charge of the arrangements: Helen Kenny, Anna Ball, Gale Gailey and Willis Gwin.

SARAH ENGLE BIBLE CLASS

The Sara Engle Bible class gathered at the home of Mrs. Harry Hinson, on Thursday evening, when 14 members were in attendance. The class voted to give $50 for Junior Department Song Books, also voted to change time of election of new officers to March to correspond with church year. After the business meeting a social time in charge of Mrs. A. W. Lago and Mrs. F. B. Beale was much enjoyed. Later refreshments were served with Mrs. P. A. Griffin, Mrs. Lawrence Tennis and Mrs. Gerald Nord as associate hostesses. The next regular meeting will be in charge of Mrs. Chaddock, Mrs. Heard, Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Hedberg.

BESSEMER NOTES

Mrs. W. L. Groce and son Clair and Glenn Stanley motored to Slago, Pa., Sunday and visited with Mr. and Mrs. John Maiers and family and Miss Twyla Groce.

Mrs. Matthew Myers, who spent a few days with her mother, Mrs. C. O. Turner who is ill at Sandy Lake, has concluded her visit and returned to her home

CIRCUS MAN SEEKS OLD TIME MINSTRELS

Seeking to get in touch with old time minstrel men, who were active in the 70's and 80's, The News is in receipt of a letter from Walter L. Main, of Geneva, O., proprietor of Main's Circus, which recalls a former New Castle outfit.

His letter follows:

Gents:

While I have been in the circus business and never owned a Minstrel, I always took a great interest in Minstrels, and in the early days saw the following, Boyer Bros., J. H. Haverly, Happy Cal Wagner, Mike Leavitt, Gus Sun or Gus Hill, I have forgotten which, Diamond Bros. of New Castle, Penna., and the Commonwealth Minstrels, which originted in Ashtabula, Ohio. I first saw them in the town hall in Rock Creek, O., in 1876, in 1877 they were with Hamilton and Sargents Circus that wintered in Windsor, Ohio.

Would be pleased to get Guyed Out with regard to old time minstrels if there are any more of the 70's and 80's.

CATASAUQUA

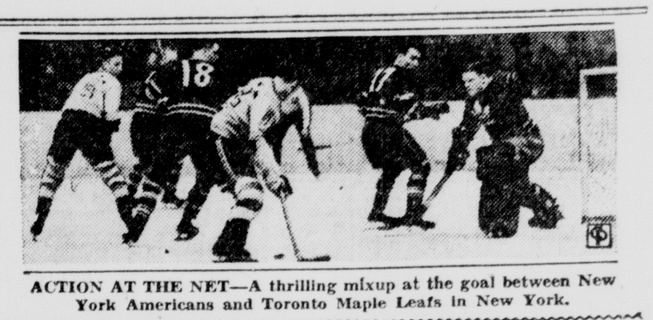

Do you know that the name Catasauqua was derived from an Indian phrase meaning "want water", or interpreted as "dry land"?

The Indian name was "Cattoshoci". Catasauqua was the home of John Thomas Taylor, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, and the home still stands.

Louis Favored Over Pastor In Tonight's Bout

Bob Pastor "College Boy" Fighter Gets His Big Chance In Ring With Brown Bomber

ODDS LENGTHEN AT LAST MOMENT

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—As fifteen thousand alert and relentless students of applied anatomy stare very learnedly down into the surgical "well" at Madison Square Garden, Prof. Joe Louis will conduct another of his series of interesting experiments upon what is known as the genus guinea pigea tonight. The professor is always interesting.

He has what the medical profession knows as a "glass jaw" and one never is quite certain whether the subject will arise, take up his bed and pink the learned professor upon the countenance while the experiment is in progress. The subject tonight is a party known as Bob Pastor who not only promises not to submit to the operation but even suggests that the professor is a bum who wouldn't know a scalpel from a bodkin. The odds of 5-1 declare that the said subject, Pastor, is a bum himself but there's just enough doubt about the matter to produce an element of technical interest.

Ten Rounder

In other words, they think the professor is a bum, too, but are not quite certain that Pastor is the proper subject to determine just how many bums may be on view tonight. It is the general idea that an extra bum will produce confusion and only serve to complicate the situation. The professor's recent experiments have not been at all encouraging in this connection.

He has been knocked by Schmeling and rocked by Ettore and Brescia, with the result that even a humpty dumpty like Pastor is given a chance.

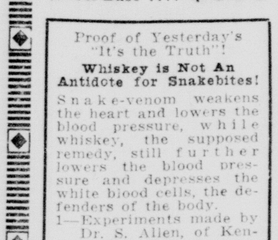

The distance is ten rounds, the house will do better than $75,000 and the betting at last is reasonable. It had been 12-1, which was insane, and went to 3-1, which was silly, and now is 5-1, which is normal. Pastor has spent two years of professional fighting.

DUKES WIN GAME

(International News Service)

BUFFALO, Jan. 29.—Duquesne university's basketball quintet was back in the win column today as a result of a brilliant 41-27 victory over a rugged St. Bonaventure college squad here. The Dukes encountered little trouble, forging ahead 24-13 by half-time.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

The University of Nebraska athletic council announced at Lincoln, Neb., today, the selection of Major Lawrence (Biff) Jones as the new Cornhusker football coach who will succeed Dana X. Bible who resigned to become grid mentor at Texas University for a period of 10 years at a salary of 15,000, per annum. Jones contract will run for five years. Jones was captain of the West Point team before graduation. He coached at Louisiana State and Oklahoma U.

Fritzie Zivic has signed a contract to meet Barney Ross, welterweight champion, in a 10-round non-title bout at Pittsburgh, February 25. Ross is scheduled to battle Al Manfredo at Jack Kearns club in Detroit tonight.

Jimmy Thompson, Shawnee, Pa., topped the field in the first round of play yesterday in the 5,000 San Francisco match open golf tourney with a score of 67, four under par.

Duquesne broke their losing streak at Buffalo last night when they trimmed St. Bonaventure 41 to 27. The Dukes played a steady game throughout. Previously they had lost to Carnegie Tech and Geneva.

Mahoning Trips Sharon 16 To 10

Mahoning Junior high school basketball team tripped the Sharon Junior high "young giants" at the Franklin high court on Thursday afternoon, 16 to 10. At the half the Seventh Warders held a 6 to 1 lead.

Picirillo and Evans led the Cowmeadow coached team in scoring, with 11 of the points between them. For the Sharons the work of Zenas and Rapper was the best.

Sharon didn't get a field goal until late in the third period after Evans and Lauro were forced out of the game on personal fouls. The zone defense baffled the visitors.

Union Set For Sectional Game

Union Has Mathematical Chance To Cop Section 21, Must Defeat Mt. Jackson Tonight

Union High school basketball team must defeat Mt. Jackson tonight to stay in the Section 21 W. P. I. A. L. race. The assignment at the time looks rather big. Mt. Jackson has always held a "jinx" over the Unions. Coach Davey Boyd hopes to break that Indian sign.

The game at Union High court tonight will start following the preliminary game in which the Union lassies and the Mt. Jackson girls will play. The first game starts at 7:30 o'clock.

Union High has been traveling at a fast clip in the past few games and if they continue their form tonight will administer a defeat to the Spearmen of Jackson.

Following are the probable lineups—

Polish Falcons Trip Monessen

Play Two Extra Periods To Take Game 38 To 37, Kawa And Koszela Stars Of Battle

The Polish Falcons won another hair-line finish game at Monessen, Pa., last night by upsetting the Monessen Slovak Catholic Sokols, 39 to 37, in a game that required two extra periods to decide.

The regulation game ended 28-28. In the first extra period Monessen made five points to make it 33 to 28, with two minutes left to play. The Falcons then scored five in quick succession to tie the count at 33-33, Slim Augustyn making the field goal that knotted up the count. Then in the second extra period Koszela and Carik made field goals, and then Monessen made two baskets and Koszela ended the game with a fancy pivot shot. Russ Kawa, with 16 points, was high man, followed by Koszela with 10 points. For the losers the work of Denego was best with 15 points. "Gabby" Kendra played a great game at guard for the Falcons.

Gersons Lose At Sharon 24 To 19

Gersons basketball team of the House-Indus league went to Sharon last night and came home on the short end of a 24 to 19 count at the hands of the fast Sharon Steel Hoop quintet at the St. Josephs church floor. The score at the half was 11 to 9 in favor of Sharon. The Sharon boys were all young giants.

The third period proved the undoing of the Gersons when they only scored four points to 12 for the Sharons. Cooper, Wallace and Butchko were the high scorers of the battle.

Discuss Proposed Baseball Team

Would Need At Least 2,500 To Start League Club

Elmer Daily, president of the Pennsylvania State Association, and Jack Dunlevy, president of the Butler club, which holds a franchise in the association, conferred here last night with baseball men in the hope of getting some action started toward New Castle taking out a franchise in the circuit.

It developed that should New Castle wish to put a team in the field there would be little hope of securing the Rosena grounds. Indications were that the ground at Centennial Field would have to be secured unless, of course, the baseball enthusiasts shift to some other spot.

According to Daily, at least $2,500 will be required to start a team here. Players and possibly a contribution could be obtained from a major league team which would want New Castle as a "farm." Most of the Class D teams in this district now are "farms" for major league organizations.

Former Sheriff William Andrews and Alec Black attended the meeting. Within a few days it will be known if there is sufficient interest behind the proposed league club to warrant proceeding with plans.

Washington And Franklin Fives Battling Today

George Washington Junior High floor is the scene today of the basketball game of the year as far as junior highs are concerned. It's the annual Franklin-Washington setto and folks it is going to be a honey. The game will start at 3 o'clock.

Coach Bill Wallace has his Franklins all set for the best game of the season. Coach Dan Carroll has the North Hillers primed for a great battle.

Boys League To Play Saturday

There will be three games played in the Boys' league at the "Y" court on Saturday afternoon. The first game will start at 2:45 o'clock.

The schedule for Saturday is as follows:

Snappers vs. Ben Franklin Hi-Y team.

West Side A. C. vs. K. Pulaski Juniors.

Shenango vs. Davies Tydols.

Yesterday the Washington alumni team upset the K. Pulaski Juniors by a score of 17 to 15, in an AA league engagement.

ZIVIC AND ROSS BOUT ARRANGED

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 29.—Fritzie Zivic, Pittsburgh welterweight, had his name on the dotted line today to meet Barney Ross, present titlist, in a non-title bout here on the night of February 25.

Ross was to have been signed after his bout last night. Zivic has been clamoring for a bout with the division champ for some time.

Some Lines From Yesteryear

Dr. William Horner was one of the finest offensive quarterbacks New Castle high school ever had. He went to Pitt, but did not play much there, although he had the ability . . . One of the best defensive quarterbacks New Castle high school ever had was "Scooter" Day. Scooter had a knack of spilling them without tackling, and they generally stayed spilled. For a little fellow, he was as tough as whalebone . . . Back in 1910, the old Peerless Club had one of the best basketball teams in this section of the country. Such stars as "Curley" Andrews, who died suddenly last summer; Bill Andrews, ex-sheriff, Eddie Connery, "Buzz" Crouch, Ted Leathers, Carl Genkinger, Howard Horner, et al composed that outfit. . . . Later on, the Carnegie Steel Company here got athletically minded and turned out a pretty fast team which played in the old auditorium on South Jefferson street. They had such stars as Sam Richards, George and Bill Bechtol, Sam Veach, "Miz" Dart, and a few others. . . . Davey Hoskins, who does a bit of officiating now and then, was one of the best basketball players ever turned out here. He went to the University of Michigan, where he starred on the Freshman team. . . . Recall the days of old Elder A. C., which played football and baseball? Such names as Charley, Jack, Mark, and Roy Preston, Bill Pannell, the Keelans, Ted and Chick; Tom Andrews, and Bill Reep, are recalled.

Handball Tourney Pairings Drawn

Pairings have been made for the annual handball tourney at the "Y" and the various matches will start immediately, it was announced by Henry MacNicholas today.

The pairings are for the A tourney. The AA tourney will be staged at a later date. All first round matches must be played by February 6th. All second round matches must be played by Thursday, February 11th. All semi-final matches will be completed by February 15th. The final match must be played on or before Wednesday, February 17.

The pairings:

H. Smith vs. Sammie Bullano.
Rabbi Diamond vs. F. Huffner.
Al Owens vs. B. McGregor.
C. Burton vs. R. Brooks.
J. Duffy vs. J. Hodge.
D. Thompson vs. Rev. Cadwell.
J. Mechling vs. D. Lewis.
N. Gennock vs. G. Swisher.

Two Floor Games At "Y" Tonight

Two basketball games will be played at the Y. M. C. A. floor tonight. The first game at 8 o'clock will send the Carnegie-Illinois Steel team into action with the West Middlesex Merchants, one of the fastest teams in the Mercer county district.

The second game will find the Johnson Bronze team battling the St. Joseph's of Sharon, leaders of the Sharon Church league and undefeated so far this year. Both games should attract quite a nice crowd to the "Y" floor.

Texans Would Legislate "Out" Horse Racing

(International News Service)

AUSTIN Tex. Jan. 29—The future of horse racing in Texas hung in the balance today.

Declaring he had found an "unparalleled wave and mania for gambling in the state," Governor James V. Allred has asked the legislature to outlaw pari-mutuel betting.

If passed, such a measure would virtually end racing at the state's four tracks, for few tracks can survive without betting.

Keystones Lose At Youngstown, O.

Keystone A. C. basketball team of the House-Indus league came back from Youngstown last night with a 34 to 26 defeat tagged on them by the West Side Baptists at the Armory floor.

The Baptists had an "on" night and dropped them in from every angle. The Keys could not hit their regular stride. Paul and Parry were the best in the lineup of the Ohioans with 18 of the points between them. Morrison and Zingaro led the Keys in scoring. Hart a newcomer played a fine game for the Keys, according to Coach Andy Venditto.

'Biff' Jones To Coach Nebraska

Former Louisiana State Coach Will Take Bible's Place With Cornhuskers

(International News Service)

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 29.—Major Lawrence M. (Biff) Jones, former Louisiana State coach famous for his feud with the late Huey Long, Thursday was signed as head football coach at the University of Nebraska.

Succeeding Dana X. Bible, who resigned recently for a similar post at the University of Texas, Jones will be paid a reported 10,000 the first year, $11,000 the second year and $12,000 each for the remaining three years of a five-year contract.

Having resigned his army commission, Jones will have no duties here outside the football team. At Texas, and for the last two years at Oklahoma University, Jones was instructor of military tactics as well as coach.

Epworths Win At Grove City

The Epworth M. E. church basketball team went to Grove City last night and took a close 24 to 23 victory. The game was hard fought nip and tuck in every period. Aliquippa Has Section Lead

Six Victories And No Defeats For Lippe-Coached Machine In Section Three

NEW BRIGHTON HERE SATURDAY

Aliquippa High School basketball team today leads Section Three with six victories and no defeats, against five and one for the New Castles. The race is waxing hot. Aliquippa High will play Ellwood City at the Aliquippa floor tonight.

Section Three's second half gets under way tonight. The New Castle and New Brighton game scheduled for tonight has been moved ahead to Saturday night. Ambridge will play at Beaver Falls.

Tough Schedule Away

In the second half of the league New Castle will play the following teams away from home—Ambridge, Butler and Aliquippa. The home games in the league will be with Beaver Falls, New Brighton and Ellwood City. The road schedule for the second half of the season is far tougher than the home engagements.

New Castle will have a lot of basketballing to do before they can pin the section flag on the Lincoln avenue school. Yes, a lot of real honest-to-goodness basketball work will be needed to whip Butler and Aliquippa, and yes, Ambridge, too.

Following is the standing of the league up to date:

	W.	L.	Pct.
Aliquippa	6	0	1.000
New Castle	5	1	.833
New Brighton	3	3	.500
Ambridge	3	3	.500
Butler	2	4	.333
Beaver Falls	2	4	.333
Ellwood City	0	6	.000

Schedule of Games Tonight

Ambridge at Beaver Falls.
Ellwood City at Aliquippa.

TALES IN TIDBITS

By BILI BRAUCHER
Central Press Sports Editor

One of the great professional basketball teams of the country is one not widely known because of the fact it is not a road team. That's the Oshkosh, Wis., All-Stars, which has rolled up about a dozen victories this season with one defeat.

Oshkosh meets the best teams in the country, but is mostly a home team because of the fact its members are mostly youngsters tied close to Oshkosh by their jobs. None is more than a few years out of school and a few are fresh from the campus. Ed Mullen, one of the stars, is former All-American from Marquette. Augie Vander Meulen was high scorer in the Big Four conference in Wisconsin, and Jim Goff was high scorer in the Little 19, an Illinois group. New men are Herm Witasek, center from University of North Dakota, and Fritz Wegner, guard from Wisconsin. George Hotchkiss, star 10 years ago at Wisconsin, is coach.

The All-Stars broke even with the New York Celtics (with Dutch Dehnert, Davey Banks, etc.) this year, and defeated the Whiting, Ind., Caesars. The Whiting team has such greats as Joe Reiff, former Northwestern ace who set an all-time Big Ten scoring record, and Bill Haarlow, from University of Chicago. Others defeated this year were the Harlem Globe Trotters, Chicago Crusaders, House of David and Cicero Elks. A three-game series with the Philadelphia Hebrews was scheduled to start Jan. 30 at Oshkosh.

For Better Racing

Some of the older Grand Circuit drivers are moaning low over new and drastic rules governing starting of trotters and pacers. The tenor of these murmurs is that the ancient "scoring" system was good enough for grandpappy and ought to be good enough for us.

In an effort to eliminate the confused milling about that delayed the starting of races, the Trotting Horse club has ruled drivers must start their charges at a slower pace, and must train their noble steeds to walk in a parade to their positions instead of scrambling to the post as though the devil were after the hindmost.

Cut Out Monkey Business

Horsemen will admit, of course, that they have been getting away with a lot of unnecessary horseplay in starting. Owners and public have tired of the long delays in getting races underway. Stubborn drivers simply will have to come into line.

Certain allowances are made for bad actors among the horses, but the old practices of ignoring the starter, endeavoring to beat the pole horse to the starting wire and pulling in horses whenever conditions did not look too favorable are out in capital letters.

New rules adopted by the Trotting Horse club were also fully approved by the Grand Circuit a few days ago. This means virtually all tracks of importance will use the new regulations this summer.

Penalties

Besides the slowing down of the preparatory stages of starting, which only means less confusion rather than reducing the speed of the race itself, the regulations provide drastic penalties for drivers disobeying the starter and judges. The most common offense, that of beating the pole horse to the starting wire, is punishable by several penalties, providing disbarment from further heats of the race, thus eliminating any chance of victory; and suspension from Grand Circuit racing from one to ten days if violations occur in the final heat of any event.

Most of the drivers are expected to work hard during winter months to get their mounts trained to participate in starts with less confusion and waste of time, thus saving wear and tear not only on the horse but the nerves of the spectators.

Three Games In League Saturday

There will be three games in the House-Indus league at the "Y" Saturday night. The first game will start at 8 o'clock.

The first game will find the Johnson-Bronze against the Keystone A. C. with the league leaders the favorites to win the engagement. The second game will have the Saks against Carnegie-Illinois steel team

In the third game the up and coming Universal team will battle the House-Seniors.

FORESIGHT

FREMONT, Ohio. — Sandusky county commissioners have an unusual amount of foresight. They gathered in the new heatless court house here, bundled up their coats and mufflers and while they shivered, they voted approval of an appropriation of $455 for the purchase of electric fans. The new $200,000 courthouse is heatless because it is equipped with a modern type of boiler for which officials have been unable to find an experienced fireman. But the new fans will keep things cooled off next summer.

FROM ME TO YOU

By MESEEALL

To-night is the night . . . the biggest dance so far this year . . . all the good Democrats and Republicans will forget their personal views and enjoy an evening together . . . they will remember they are all citizens of the United States.

What do you know? . . . that is a question that is asked a thousand times a day . . . well today we have an answer for it. Last night there was a meeting in the city building and his highness gave out plans for a big party to be held in the Cathedral, February the 5th. It will be held for the purpose of raising money for the flood sufferers in the Ohio and Mississippi river basins . . . It will be a great affair according to reports and everyone of course is invited to come . . . all sorts of entertainment will be furnished and dancing will also be in vogue . . . Be sure to keep this date open for his highness, the Mayor of New Castle, Charles E. McGrath . . . More information will be found in this and later editions, so read your paper carefully.

Steel Gains At Opening Of Market Today Are Affected Later

By LESLIE GOULD
International News Service
Financial Writer

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—Stocks lost further ground today, after additional steel gains at the opening had been wiped out by moderate profit-taking.

The motor deadlock together with a fresh sit-down strike at the Akron plant of Goodrich Rubber, encouraged operations on the bear side.

U. S. Steel opened ⅞ higher but soon dropped below last night's close. Bethlehem had a small fractional gain converted into a loss of more than a point.

General Motors and Chrysler were comparatively quiet but lost some ground. Nash-Kelvinator slipped almost a point at one time.

American Can again dropped to a new low, losing a point to around 109.

Baking issues, particularly Ward Baking B, were actively higher.

Mass Meeting Of Sportsmen Here Monday Night

To Propose Change In State Game And Fish Laws Following Discussion

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 29.—Ellwood City Rod and Gun club is sponsoring a big mass meeting of all sportsmen in the district on Monday, Feb. 1 at 7:30 p. m., in the Shelby clubhouse. The meeting is open to all sportsmen whether they are members of a club or not.

Some very important changes in the state game and fish laws will be proposed to the state legislature by the State Federation of Sportsmen, of which the local club is affiliated.

The Ellwood Rod and Gun club is sponsoring this meeting to determine what portions of the proposed legislation the sportsmen favor.

A meeting of the State Federation of Sportsmen will be held in Harrisburg Feb. 12, and the results of our meeting will help to govern the voting of the Lawrence County delegate at the federation meeting.

Sportsmen from Beaver county, Wampum and Castlewood districts are urged to come.

The reasons given for the proposed increases in license are to improve the hunting and fishing condition for sportsmen.

Some of the most important proposals are:

1. To increase the resident hunter's license to $2.60.

2. To permit the present resident license to remain at $2.00 and apply a resident deer license of $3.00.

3. Lower the non-resident small game license from $15.00 to $10.00 and apply a special deer license of $25.00.

4. Change the present state laws that require 75c from every resident hunter's license to be used for purchasing game lands only, so that 25c will be used for that purpose and the balance of 50c be used to make more game available for the hunters.

5. Increase the resident fishing license to $2.00 providing the amount increased be retained in the county that license was purchased in for improving fishing conditions.

Casting and bowling will be featured after the meeting.

Surprise Honors Mrs. H. F. Pollock

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 29.—Thirteen members of the Gleaners class of the Wurtemburg Methodist church assembled last evening at the home of Mrs. H. F. Polock of Wurtemburg for the regular January meeting.

Mrs. Carl Ketterer conducted the devotional period and during the business meeting plans for class activities were discussed.

Today being the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Pollock, the members agreeably surprised her by presenting her with an array of very lovely and useful gifts commemorating the happy occasion.

The remainder of the evening was passed in a pleasant manner with the hostess assisted by Mrs. Ketterer in serving the group a tempting repast.

Mrs. Edward Smith invited the group to meet at her home at Wurtemburg for the next regular meeting on Thursday evening, February 25.

Mrs. W. S. Cox Is Buried Yesterday

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 29.—Funeral services for Mrs. William S. Cox were conducted from the home, Ellwood City R. D. 2, on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in charge of Rev. O. B. Emerson.

Pallbearers were Harold Welsh, Don McClintock, Howard Cox, Ray Smith, Fred Smith and Elmer Clark. Interment was made in Locust Grove cemetery.

Mrs. Joe Latiano Entertains Club

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 29—Mrs. Joe Latiano was a charming hostess to the members of the T. O. B. club last night at her home on Crescent avenue.

Bridge was the principal pastime of the evening with two tables in play. Mrs. Leonard Maxwell and Mrs. George Fosnaught were presented with the high score awards at the conclusion of the games.

An appetizing luncheon was then served by the hostess with the aid of Mrs. Bruce Myers. In two weeks the club will meet with Mrs. Fosnought on Todd avenue.

Mrs. Jack Boyle Hostess To T. M. M.

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 29— Mrs. Jack Boyle dispensed charming hospitality to the members of the T. M. M. Club last night at her home in Ewing Park.

Those present enjoyed the evening around three tables of bridge at the conclusion of which Mrs. C. K. Morrow and Mrs. Harry Wasser received the high score awards.

At an appointed hour a delicious luncheon was served by the hostess with the aid of Mrs. W. E. Bayers, Mrs. S. P. Peck invited the club to meet at her home in Ewing Park in two weeks.

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 29.—Members of the Canfield club held their monthly meeting last night at the home of Mrs. Iva Garwig on Spring avenue with 14 present.

The evening was spent with 500 and bingo. Mrs. Anna Jones and Mrs. Lottie Fye were the respective winners. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess later in the evening.

The club will meet again on Feb. 25 at the home of Mrs. Wilhelmina Anderson on Ninth street.

Women's Club To Hold Musicale

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 29.—The third musical of the series being sponsored this year by the music committee of the Women's club, will be given Saturday, January 30th, at 3 p. m. at the First Baptist church. This program will be given by the young musicians of the town, students of local teachers and of the public schools. Each of the teachers who are participating has provided two soloists, including pianists, singers, and violinists; and the public school classes have contributed a chorus of grade school children, the girls high school Glee club, and a trombone soloist.

Ellwood High At Aliquippa Tonight

Blue And White Wolverines To Start Second Half Of Schedule This Evening

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 29—Ellwood City High Wolverines will begin the second half of their schedule in Section 3 of the W. P. I. A. L. tonight when they will invade Aliquippa for a return game.

The locals have been working hard with an intact team. They did not lose a single person from the varsity squad at the mid-year graduation. Aliquippa has lost two men. With this advantage the Ellwoodians hope to turn the tables on the Lippe men who trounced them here. Coach Jerry Newton was dickering with starting a sophomore line-up tonight.

Miss Amy Ketler Is Class Hostess

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 29.—Members of the Harriet Gordon class of the Wurtemburg United Presbyterian church were received in a hospitable manner last evening when they gathered at the home of Miss Amy Ketler of Wurtemburg for the monthly meeting. There were twelve members in attendance.

Following the devotional period the usual business meeting was held with plans being formulated for a number of class activities.

An informal social period followed with the hostess assisted by her mother, Mrs. Charles Ketler, serving the guests a refreshing luncheon. The next meeting will be held on the last Thursday of February with the place of meeting to be later determined.

Toll Of Flood Is Increasing

Number Of Dead Mounts—At Least 250 Are Victims In Kentucky

(International News Service)

Crest waters of the nation's most disastrous flood pounded at a 60-foot sea wall at Cairo, Ill., as 4,000 struggled to save that city and thousands fled it today. Above Cairo along the Ohio river, the history-making waters were mostly receding.

Below Cairo, the Mississippi river inched slowly toward the flood crests expected late next week. The situation at a glance:

Kentucky—At least 250 dead; 350,000 homeless. Buildings crack and lean at Louisville. Evacuation of 30,000 from Paducah continues under great difficulty as water still rises.

Illinois—Estimated 50,000 homeless, 11 known dead, Cairo threatened.

Indiana—Estimated 100,000 homeless. More than 30,000 isolated in Evansville when bridge collapses. Seaplanes rushed vaccine. Jeffersonville and New Albany, "those cities."

Tennessee—Estimated 100,000 homeless, Memphis haven for thousands. Estimated 100,000 pick and shovel men working on levees from Cairo to New Orleans.

COLLEGE STUDENTS STUDY FINGERPRINTS

(International News Service)

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Jan. 29.—A volunteer class in finger-printing has been started at Penn State college here.

Capt. W. V. Dennis, Jr., chief of the campus patrol, said he is now instructing three students in the methods of distinguishing the five types of finger prints and how to classify and take them. Although no college credit is given for this work, he hopes to increase his volunteer class this spring.

Ask White To Turn Over Records

Audit Being Made of Accounts of Former City Solicitor By Council Direction

When council met on Thursday councilmen passed a resolution in which Attorney Robert McKinney White, former solicitor, was requested to give into the custody of Miss Sarah Boyles, chief clerk, city solicitor's office, any papers White has relative to the business of the city while he was solicitor.

However, the resolution said that Attorney White need not give over to the city but one cash book and one duplicate receipt book at any one time.

When the audit now under way by C. L. McMillen is concluded, Miss Boyles is to return the records to White, who has maintained they are his personal property.

When the audit was asked some time ago, White said he would be willing to hand over to the city any record he had, providing they were placed in the custody of Miss Boyles and the audit was conducted in the office of the present city solicitors. The resolution accepts this proposition.

The audit insofar as the tax liens are concerned has been completed. The rest of the audit is to be completed within a three months' period, dating back to several weeks ago.

Wonder if labor leaders would call so many strikes if their pay stopped, too.

VOLANT NOTES

W. J. Allen is confined to his home by illness.

Mrs. P. L. Tillia, was a caller in New Wilmington, on Tuesday.

Mrs. Herbert Peaires and daughter Yvonne, who have been visiting the former's brother, O. M. Bilger, left Saturday for Michigan, where she will join her husband.

John Offutt of Leesburg, visited his cousin, W. J. Allen, on Wednesday.

William Hunt, of New Castle, spent Thursday night with his parents.

Mrs. Florence Brown, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Kaufman of Leesburg, this week.

Elaine, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wilkin, who has been ill, for the past week, is improving.

Ivan Blevins, a student at Slippery Rock State Teachers College, spent several days with his parents recently.

Miss Florence Brown has returned home after a three weeks visit with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fletcher of Indiana, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fletcher and Elizabeth, of Indiana, Pa., spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Miller attended the funeral services of Mrs. Parker McConnell, of Ellwood City, on Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs Howard Houk, of Wampum, Pa., were guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sholler on Sunday.

Mrs. Edith Simpson, Mrs. Florence Miller, and Mrs. W. J. Allen, called on Mrs. J. H. Reed, of Rich Hill, on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. E. A. Caldwell of New Castle, and H. W. Caldwell, of the Harbor, called on Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Allen on Tuesday afternoon.

John Marette, local mail carrier, is ill at his home here, and Robert McNulty, of Plaingrove, is carrying the mail in his place.

GARDNER

Cora Stewart, of Castlewood, is spending a few days with Gardner friends, where there is illness in the home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Wade, of the Butler road, spent last week in Harrisburg as guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Wade.

Miss Pansy Davis, of Gardner, was ill for several days with grip and has not yet recovered.

Mr. and Msr. William Dodge, of the Ellwood road, entertained over the week-end the family of their son, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Dodge and child, of Lansing, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Lowery, of Shenango Stop, and their daughter, Mrs. M. N. Marshall, of Gardner, went some time ago to Portsmouth, O., to visit the 99-year-old mother of Mr. Lowery. Mrs. Marshall wrote to her family that the home of her grandmother is on a hill so they are not in the flood, but are storm-stayed by water all around them, so they cannot leave.

Section G from the Third United Presbyterian church in New Castle, met at the home of Mrs. W. F. McClaine and her daughter, Mrs. Edith Wiles, for a quilting party on Wednesday. A tureen dinner was served at noon.

Roy Shaffer and Mrs. Shaffer, and Peggy, have all been ill with grip at their home in Gardner.

Falcons Aiding In Flood Relief

Foodstuffs and clothing are being gathered this week by the Polish Falcons, to be added to the general store being collected in New Castle for the flood victims. Three of the members have been designated as solicitors and have been calling upon residents. When the solicitation is completed the total collection will be added to those being made by the Red Cross and the Legion.

After you make your million, you can buy anything you want except the friends you discarded on the way up.
